BOWL SEASON™

A CELEBRATION OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Bowl Season is one of the greatest and longest running traditions in American sports, taking place in late December and running through New Year's Day, and has been college football's post-season for over 100 years. It promotes the grand tradition of the bowl system and its endearing value to student-athletes, highlighting the broader university and college communities, including spirit squads, marching bands, athletic staff and fans. Bowl Season spotlights the distinctiveness of each of the bowl games along with their histories and traditions and their proud communities — embracing and honoring the bowl experience for present and future generations.

WELCOME FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of New Mexico

Michelle Lujan Grisham
Governor

Welcome Message from Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham

As governor of the great state of New Mexico, I'm honored to welcome you to the Land of Enchantment for the 17th annual New Mexico Bowl!

New Mexico is proud to play host to this year's teams, their families and fans of college football from all over the country. While you are here, I encourage you to take the opportunity to experience our state and all that makes it so extraordinary.

Whether you are enjoying our many outdoor activities, our state parks or our world-renowned New Mexican cuisine, you will find something to love about our state – and a reason to come back again!

We wish both teams involved in today's game the best of luck and good health moving forward in their academic and athletic careers.

Bienvenidos!

December 17, 2022

Dear New Mexico Bowl Fans,

As Mayor of Albuquerque, I would like to welcome you to the 17th Annual New Mexico Bowl. Since its inception in 2006, the New Mexico Bowl has pitted the Mountain West Conference against the Western Athletic Conference, Pac-12 and Conference USA in New Mexico's only nationally televised college football event.

While you are here in Albuquerque, I encourage you to explore our beautiful City and surrounding area and find out for yourself why we call it the Land of Enchantment. Make sure to take a stroll through time in Old Town, learn about the long legacy of our native people at the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center, or get some last-minute holiday gifts in Nob Hill. Whether you are enjoying delicious New Mexican cuisine or going for a relaxing walk along the Rio Grande Bosque Trail, adventure always awaits you in Albuquerque.

Once again, welcome to the Duke City. Enjoy the game, and I wish you all a very happy holiday season.

Sincerely

Timothy M. Keller
Mayor of Albuquerque

#TrueABQ

Explore the Heart of New Mexico, where diverse cultures, authentic art and vibrant traditions have helped shape our centuries-old story.

No matter your interests, the city has countless opportunities for you to explore. Immerse yourself in our painted skies, abundant space and more than 310 days of sunshine, and let Albuquerque change your perspective. For more information on all things Albuquerque, go to VisitABQ.org.

BEFORE THE GAME

Get a taste of the city by visiting Albuquerque's diverse neighborhoods. From the 310-year-old historic Old Town and the gleaming modern buildings of the bustling Uptown shopping district, to the serene beauty of the North Valley and the hip vibe found within historic Nob Hill, each of these neighborhoods has a unique personality and a variety of places to stay, things to do, world-class museums to visit, keepsakes to treasure and delicacies to eat.

DAY OF THE NEW MEXICO BOWL

Get pumped for the game by biking along the Bosque or hiking in the Sandia Mountains, or indulge in brunch at one of the city's popular spots. While at the game, be sure to commemorate your visit with a free photo taken inside Albuquerque's life-size picture frame. In the evening, sample the iconic flavors of New Mexican cuisine, then watch the sunset paint the sky while sipping an award-winning local brew from one of the city's more than 40 breweries and taprooms.

AFTER THE GAME

Get a jumpstart on holiday shopping by visiting the bustling Uptown neighborhood, or check out the boutique shops of Old Town and Nob Hill to find a one-of-a-kind gift for your loved ones. Don't leave the city before experiencing one of the many world-class museums and cultural centers to learn more about the diverse influences that helped to shape Albuquerque into the city it is today.

EVENTS

Winter is a treasured season within the heart of the Southwest. Visitors can take in the natural glow of hundreds of luminarias, or experience the River of Lights, New Mexico's largest walk-through holiday production. For a full list of things to do, head to VisitABQ.org/ABQ365.

A Message From Executive Director Jeff Siembieda

Welcome to Bowl Season. Welcome to Albuquerque, New Mexico. Welcome to the 17th annual New Mexico Bowl.

First and foremost, congratulations to both teams on a terrific season. It is a long, hard schedule and you have endured countless ups and downs. I wish all of you the best today and in the future.

We started this event in 2006, with the idea of becoming a holiday-time tradition in New Mexico, showcasing our beautiful State and City, and providing a memorable experience for all who attend. I'm proud of what this community, our stakeholders and staff have built. The backbone is the people; our board, partners, volunteers and staff. I am beyond grateful for all of you who believe in this game; who have invested emotionally, monetarily and with your time to create something so special. Whether you have been with us since day-one, joined us this year, or have come aboard somewhere in between, please take pride in what you have created. New Mexico would not be on this national stage hosting this bowl game without you and I am very proud of what you continue to do.

The New Mexico Tourism Department and Visit Albuquerque have shared the vision of the New Mexico Bowl before we ever kicked a ball. They were the first two partners of our event and have remained a constant ever since. These past few years have been very challenging for all of us, especially so for those in the tourism and hospitality industry. In New Mexico, we are incredibly fortunate to have Jen Schroer as our cabinet Secretary for Tourism and Tania Armenta as the President of Visit Albuquerque. These dynamic leaders have paved the path for our incredible destination to remain one of the nation's most desirable places to visit. Thank you for your friendship, support and leadership.

For those of you visiting the Land of Enchantment, I trust you have had a great trip. We play this game in one of the most beautiful and unique places in the world. Where the flavor, culture, diversity, hospitality and natural beauty are unmatched. Take some time to explore, enjoy and taste all New Mexico has to offer.

Enjoy the game. I am looking forward to what should be a great matchup. Thank you for being here and Happy Holidays.

Best,

Jeff Siembieda

WELCOME VISIT ALBUQUERQUE

It's our honor to welcome you to Albuquerque, the gateway to the Land of Enchantment, and to host this prestigious game which helps kick off the exciting college bowl season. We, along with our community partners, are committed to making your visit here a treasured experience.

Visit Albuquerque is proud of the relationship and partnership we have with the New Mexico Bowl. We've been a presenting sponsor of the game since its inception, and we've witnessed the joy it brings to our community each December along with the exhilaration of watching some of the nation's best college football players compete for a post-season win.

While you are here, we hope you will take time to explore our city. In Albuquerque, diverse cultures, authentic art and dynamic traditions have helped shape our centuries-old story. No matter your interests, adventures await you. Sample traditional New Mexican cuisine that takes minutes to make and hundreds of years to prepare, experience world-class museums, stroll along Central Avenue under the vintage neon glow of Route 66, or soar high above the city in the hot air ballooning capital of the world — a sight sure to change your perspective.

Winter is a cherished season in Albuquerque. We have so many holiday traditions, cultural experiences and vibrant events that we can't wait to share with you.

Bienvenidos to all the athletes, coaches and fans, and best wishes for a great game!

GAME PREVIEW

2022 NEW MEXICO BOWL

The 17th Annual New Mexico Bowl will kick-off from University Stadium in Albuquerque with one of its most anticipated matchups in history.

BYU (7-5, Independent) will be making its second appearance in the New Mexico Bowl when it takes on SMU (7-5, 5-3 American Athletic Conference).

The Cougars won the 2010 New Mexico Bowl against UTEP, earning a 52-24 victory over the Miners led by New Mexico Bowl MVP Jake Heaps' four passing touchdowns, including three to wideout Cody Hoffman.

BYU's offense ranks No. 32 nationally at 440.7 yards per game and averaged 31.9 points per game. The Cougars picked up Power 5 wins over Baylor and Stanford and a victory over regional rival Boise State while playing a strong overall schedule. Including its upcoming matchup with SMU, 10 of BYU's 12 FBS opponents in 2022 earned bowl eligibility with six or more wins.

This year will be BYU's 40th bowl overall dating back to the 1974 Fiesta Bowl. Among their 40 bowl appearances, the Cougars have played in 20 different bowl games in 12 states. BYU's 40 bowl invitations rank tied for No. 20 among college programs—more than storied programs such as UCLA, Notre Dame, Oregon, Iowa and Wisconsin. The Cougars have gone bowling in 17 of the past 18 seasons.

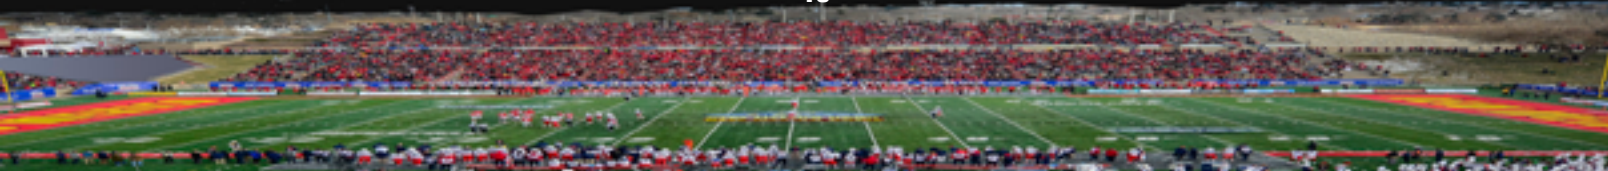

This year's game will be the second time the Cougars and Mustangs have met in a bowl game. The first overall matchup between the two schools took place in San Diego at the 1980 Holiday Bowl, known by Cougar fans as the "Miracle Bowl."

In 1980's historic game, BYU completed one of the greatest comebacks in college football history by scoring 21 points over the final 2:33 of the game to beat the Mustangs 46-45.

SMU has won four of its last five games with a 7-5 record overall and boast the nation's 11th best scoring offense, putting up 38.4 points per game. The Mustangs are coached by Rhett Lashlee. The former Miami (2020-21) and SMU (2018-19) offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach has the Mustangs galloping to the No. 12 offense overall in the FBS, averaging 479.8 yards per game, highlighted by the No. 5 passing attack at 324.9 yards per game.

SMU features the nation's leading receiver in Rashee Rice who is No. 1 in receiving yards per game at 112.9 and No. 2 overall receiving yards with 1,355. Mustang quarterback Tanner Mordecai is also among the nation's best passers with 300.5 passing yards per game, which ranks No. 10 nationally. As a team, SMU finished the regular season in the top 15 among FBS rankings for passing offense (5th, 324.9), scoring offense (11th, 38.4), total offense (12th, 279.8), first down offense (12th, 302), red zone offense (13th, .914), blocked kicks (8th, 4) and fewest penalties per game (10th, 4.42).

Appearing in the New Mexico Bowl for the first time, the Mustangs have been selected to play in a bowl game four years in a row for just the second time in program history. The Mustangs have earned a bowl bid in six of the last seven years but missed out on their 2020 and 2021 games due to Covid-19 cancellations. SMU began playing football in 1915 and has been invited to 18 bowl games overall.

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The American Athletic Conference consists of 12 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has fashioned an impressive list of accomplishments in the competitive arena, in the classroom and in support of student-athlete welfare. The American is firmly established as a Power 6 conference thanks to its collection of national team and individual championships, football and basketball postseason victories, expansive media rights contract with ESPN, and its commitment to providing the highest levels of support for student-athletes.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams in addition to a College Football Playoff semifinalist, three New Year's Six bowl champions (UCF in 2013 and 2017; Houston in 2015), two NCAA Men's Final Four participants, six Women's Final Four teams, an NIT champion, 13 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered multiple top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

The American has seen a member school claim a spot in a New Year's Six bowl seven times in the league's first nine football seasons, including the 2021 campaign, when Cincinnati became the first American Athletic Conference team to reach the College Football Playoff. The American was the only conference to have a team in the College Football Playoff and the NCAA Men's Final Four in the 2021 calendar year.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best football seasons in program history as members of the conference. Cincinnati has registered back-to-back top-10 finishes after the Bearcats were No. 4 in 2021 after their historic CFP appearance and No. 8 in the final 2020 national polls. UCF finished in the national top 10 twice as a conference member – in 2013 and 2017. Houston went 13-1 in the 2015 football season, setting a school record for wins, while Navy won a program-record 11 games in 2015, its first season in the conference, and matched that mark with its 2019 campaign. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered three 10-win seasons in the last seven years (2015, 2017, 2019), including a school-record 12 wins in 2019. Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. South Florida finished in the top 25 for the first two times in program history (2016, 2017). SMU returned to national prominence in 2019 with a 10-win season, during which the Mustangs were ranked as high as No. 14 nationally. Tulsa returned to the top 25 for the first time in 11 years in 2020. East Carolina earned a top-20 ranking in 2014, while Tulane played in three consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history. Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's lacrosse, men's golf, men's tennis, women's tennis, men's cross country and men's track and field.

Under The American's banner, Houston's men's basketball team reached the 2021 NCAA Final Four and was ranked No. 3 in the final coaches' poll, while Memphis claimed the 2021 NIT title. Houston's men's track and field team took third place at the 2018 and 2019 NCAA Outdoor Championships. Tulsa has registered top-six national finishes at the 2019, 2020 and 2021 NCAA Men's Cross Country Championships.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Memphis quarterback Brady White was the 2020 winner of the National Football Foundation's James V. Campbell Trophy as the top scholar-athlete in college football. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Tulsa linebacker Zaven Collins repeated that feat in 2020. Houston's Ed Oliver won the 2017 Outland Trophy as the nation's best interior lineman, while Cincinnati's Coby Bryant won the 2021 Jim Thorpe Award as the top defensive back. The American has had four top-10 Heisman Trophy finishes as Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds was fifth in 2015, UCF quarterback McKenzie Milton was eighth in 2017 and sixth in 2018, and Cincinnati quarterback Desmond Ridder was eighth in 2021. Reynolds was also selected as the winner of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Acker was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, South Florida star Georgina Corrick was the Division I softball Academic All-America of the Year in 2022, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016.

The American announced a lucrative and comprehensive media rights extension with ESPN in May of 2019, providing the conference with a stronger and more extensive presence on ESPN's primary television networks (ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU). Since the extension took effect in the 2020-21 academic year, a minimum of 40 regular-season football telecasts and 60 regular-season men's basketball games per season will appear on those primary networks. Nearly every conference-controlled game in all sports will appear either on an ESPN network or on ESPN+. The football championship game, all rounds of the men's basketball championship, and multiple rounds of the women's basketball championship, will be on linear ESPN television networks.

The first seven American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Saturday. Subsequent championship games will appear on either ABC or ESPN through the duration of the 12-year extension.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in a New Year's Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with an expansive group of bowls for the new cycle, which began in 2020, ensuring multiple annual matchups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations for member institutions.

Away from the competitive arena, The American has established itself as a leader in the area of student-athlete wellness, both through the adoption of NCAA autonomous legislation on matters including full cost of attendance and nutrition. The conference, in conjunction with its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has also launched the Pow6rful Minds campaign to improve awareness and education on mental issues and recognize the scholarly achievements of the conference's student-athletes.

SMU

SMU students experience a nationally ranked global research University in the vibrant city of Dallas. Eight degree-granting schools elevate SMU to the top tier of national universities.

On our welcoming campus in one of the nation's economic and cultural powerhouses, SMU's innovation culture prepares more than 12,000 graduate and undergraduate students for the demands of a rapidly changing world, and jobs that don't yet exist. With our discipline flexible curriculum, students build a solid liberal arts foundation that allows them to pursue multiple majors and experience different cultures. Students customize their education by pairing with faculty mentors to impact Dallas and the world through research, civic engagement, creative works and internships. SMU graduates go on to become ethical professional and community leaders who change the world.

SMU was founded in 1911 by what is now the United Methodist Church to promote higher education and freedom of inquiry and remains secular in its teaching.

- SMU ranks among the top 20% of national universities (U.S. News & World Report).
- SMU students hail from all 50 states and around the world, and from all walks of life.
- An application to SMU is all it takes to be automatically considered for a range of academic awards, including the President's Scholarship, which covers full tuition and fees.
- Students' intellectual interests are covered with 100+ majors and 85+ minors.
- Our Mustang nation includes 134,500+ alumni worldwide. In the DFW-area, our 65,500+ alumni are entrepreneurs, executives and civic leaders who mentor SMU students.

- SMU classifies as a university with higher research activity by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.
- Meadows Museum at SMU houses one of the largest and most comprehensive collections of art outside Spain, and provides creative capital that prepares visionary artists and scholars.
- The George W. Bush Presidential Center, on our main campus, provides students access to fellowships, lectures and global experts.

R. GERALD TURNER

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

As president of SMU since 1995, R. Gerald Turner is leading an era of unprecedented progress. Under his leadership, the University continues to advance as an institution of national excellence and international renown. SMU's progress has included increases in average admission test scores, a near tripling of student applications, an increase in enrollment of underrepresented communities up to 33% and a quadrupling of the endowment.

Building on a history of excellence, SMU Ignited: Boldly Shaping Tomorrow, which launched publicly in September 2021, is the third comprehensive fundraising campaign initiated under President Turner's leadership. The multiyear $1.5 billion campaign for impact aims to build on SMU's strengths and empower outstanding students, enrich teaching and research, and enhance campus and community. SMU Ignited concluded the first year of its public phase with more than $880 million raised.

During the planning and public phases of the campaign, SMU has secured the largest gifts in its history, including a landmark gift of $100 million from the Moody Foundation to create the new Moody School of Graduate and Advanced Studies, SMU's eighth degree-granting school; the first $50 million gift from an alumni family, from Carolyn L. and David B. Miller '72, '73 for the Cox School of Business; the largest gift in SMU Athletics history, a $50 million commitment from the Garry Weber Foundation toward the Garry Weber End Zone Complex at Gerald J. Ford Stadium; and the largest gift in University history by a non-alumnus from William S. Spears to establish the William S. Spears Institute for Entrepreneurial Leadership in the Cox School of Business.

Fueled by these investments, the University continues to advance as a leading center of teaching and research that accelerates knowledge, addresses significant issues, prepares students to be world changers and broadens community engagement. SMU ranks in the top 20% of the best national universities by U.S. News & World Report.

From its home in the global city of Dallas, SMU's vibrant campus offers enrichment opportunities such as the Tate Lecture Series and the Meadows Museum to students and the wider community. President Turner led efforts with the Board of Trustees to attract the George W. Bush Presidential Center, which opened at SMU in 2013. SMU and the Bush Presidential Center partner through fellowships, public lectures, the new George W. Bush Institute-SMU Economic Growth Initiative and additional collaborations that bring together students, faculty and global experts to tackle pressing challenges.

Beyond the campus, President Turner has been a leader in NCAA Athletics. He has chaired four Division I conferences, including the AAC. He has also served on the boards of the Dallas Citizens Council, the American Council on Education and the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, and he co-chaired the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics for nearly 10 years. In Texas, he serves on the Dallas Regional Chamber of Commerce and is a member of its University CEO Council. He also serves on the boards of the Methodist Health System Foundation, the Salvation Army of North Texas and the AT&T Performing Arts Center.

Before joining SMU, President Turner was the chancellor of the University of Mississippi. He previously served in administrative positions at the University of Oklahoma and Pepperdine University. A native of New Boston, Texas, he earned an A.A. degree from Lubbock Christian University, a B.S. in psychology from Abilene Christian University and an M.A. and a Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Texas at Austin. He and his wife, Gail, have two married daughters and five grandchildren.

RICK HART DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Rick Hart was named SMU's Director of Athletics on July 16, 2012.

During Hart's decade on the Hilltop, SMU has repeatedly shown its commitment to competing at the top level of college athletics and to providing a best-in-class student-athlete experience.

During the last three years alone, SMU has invested over $125 million in football construction projects, pushing the total invested in SMU Athletics facilities to a quarter of a billion dollars since 2013.

SMU has also reinforced its long-standing commitment to student-athlete development, wellbeing and experience by expanding its health, safety and well-being initiatives and staffing, its personal and professional development programs and degree completion opportunities.

SMU has added training staff and mental health professionals to address the physical, emotional and mental demands associated with being a student-athlete, and in fall 2022, SMU Athletics expanded its successful Life After Ball (LAB) Program to all sports. SMU has also added a BOLD (Big Opportunities Live in Dallas) Program to its suite of student-athlete development tools, with the goal of helping student-athletes navigate and capitalize on NIL legislation.

These programs are all in addition to the full cost-of-attendance scholarships SMU provides for its student-athletes. All told, SMU invests almost $150,000 in each of its almost 500 student-athletes each year. These offerings have proven fruitful, as SMU student-athletes excel in the classroom, with 67% earning cumulative GPAs of 3.0 or higher, over one-third boasting GPAs of 3.5 or better and 91% earning degrees. During Hart's decade at SMU, over 1,400 degrees have been conferred on Mustang student-athletes.

SMU has also experienced broad success athletically over the past 10 years, winning 30 team conference titles across 13 sports and advancing 16 of 17 Mustang sports to the post-season.

In the community, SMU's partnership with the City of Dallas has been strengthened through community service and the Dallas, 214, "Born and Raised" and Triple-D marketing and branding initiatives.

Due to the generosity of alumni and friends, annual giving has reached record levels in support of operations, projects and facilities. In the past 10 years, SMU Athletics has been the beneficiary of an astounding 47 seven-figure gifts and 381 gifts of $100k or more, and for the 2022 fiscal year, SMU Athletics raised an all-time record $73 million. Because of the high level of support, SMU has renovated and expanded Moody Coliseum and opened numerous new facilities including the SMU Indoor Performance Center and Armstrong Fieldhouse, the Miller Event Center, the Styslinger/Altec SMU Tennis Complex, the Robson & Lindley Aquatics Center and BarrMcMillion Natatorium, the Payne Stewart SMU Golf Training Center at Trinity Forest Golf Club and Washburne Soccer & Track Stadium. Construction will begin soon on an outdoor pool to complete the Robson & Lindley Aquatics Center and Barr-McMillion Natatorium Complex and design is underway for the $100M Garry Weber End Zone Complex.

Hart also developed and installed the Strategic Plan for SMU Athletics titled, "The SMU Advantage." The SMU Advantage consists of a departmental vision, mission, values and goals and operates on a principle of S.P.I.R.I.T. (Service, Passion, Integrity, Respect, Innovation and Teamwork), with a focus on the student-athlete and aligning the Athletics Department with the educational mission of the University.

Hart is serving as NACDA President for the 2022-23 membership year and is also a member of the LEAD1 Association Board of Directors. He has previously served on the NACDA Executive Committee, the NCAA Division I Championship/Sports Management Cabinet, the FCS Athletics Directors Association Executive Committee and as a faculty member for the D1-A Athletics Directors' Institute.

Hart came to SMU after six years as Director of Athletics at Tennessee at Chattanooga. Hart served seven years at Oklahoma in various athletics administrative capacities, ending as the Senior Associate Athletics Director in 2006. Hart has also worked in athletics at North Carolina and East Carolina and has served with the U.S. Olympic Committee.

A graduate of UNC, Hart earned a bachelor's degree in physical education, health and sport science. Hart and his wife, Allison, also a graduate of North Carolina, are proud parents of Trevor (SMU '22), an Assistant Director of Marketing at Northwestern, and Caroline (Carly), an SMU sophomore.

A third-generation athletics administrator, Hart's father, Dave, served as Director of Athletics at Tennessee, Florida State and East Carolina, and his late grandfather, Dave Sr., served in a variety of roles within collegiate athletics.

RHETT LASHLEE

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Rhett Lashlee returned to SMU as Head Football Coach on Nov. 29, 2021. Lashlee previously served as offensive coordinator for the Mustangs for two seasons, including the record-setting 2019 campaign.

Lashlee, a one-time finalist (2013) and two-time semi-finalist (2019, 2020) for the Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach, came back to the Hilltop after two seasons as the Miami Hurricanes' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Lashlee also has the distinction of being the only coach ever nominated for the Broyles Award four different times at four different schools (Arkansas State, Auburn, SMU, Miami).

In his first season in Coral Gables, the Hurricanes jumped to No. 32 in the FBS in total offense (from No. 98), No. 29 in passing offense (from No. 52), No. 26 in scoring offense (from No. 90), No. 17 in red zone offense (from No. 122) and No. 20 in first downs gained (from No. 84). In 2021, Miami again ranked 26th in scoring average, improving to 34.1 PPG, and jumped up to 22nd in total offense at 448.8 yards per game.

Under his watch, QB D'Eriq King was a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Davey O'Brien Award. Several offensive players enjoyed career years under his tutelage, including Michael Harley, who became the school's all-time leading wide receiver, and TE Brevin Jordan, who was a Mackey Award semifinalist and an eventual 2021 NFL Draft pick of the Houston Texans. In 2021, freshman Tyler Van Dyke was named the ACC Rookie of the Year, and Charleston Rambo broke the Miami single-season receiving yards and receptions record.

Prior to heading to Coral Gables, Lashlee helped lead the Mustangs to a 10-3 finish in 2019, guiding an offense that ranked No. 7 in FBS in scoring (41.8 points per game), No. 13 in passing offense (309 yards per game), No. 9 in total offense (489.8 yards per game) and No. 12 in first downs gained (322). SMU's 10 wins were the school's most since the 1984 season, and its 35 rushing touchdowns set a school record.

The Mustangs were ranked No. 3 nationally in plays per game, averaging 80.9 – a testament to Lashlee's up-tempo offensive style. SMU was one of only 34 teams in FBS to average more than six yards per play in 2019. Quarterback Shane Buechele threw for 3,929 yards with 34 touchdowns and just 10 interceptions, completing 63 percent of his passes. Running back Xavier Jones rushed for 1,276 yards and 23 touchdowns, averaging 5.2 yards per carry. His 23 TDs led the nation. James Proche led the nation with 111 catches. All three were first-team All-AAC selections.

In his first season at SMU, the Mustang offense ranked 27th nationally in passing offense at 271.7 yards per game. Quarterback Ben Hicks registered 2,582 yards and 19 touchdowns to finish his SMU career as the all-time leader in passing yards (9,081), total offense (8,977), TD passes (71), TDs responsible for (74), completions (718) and 300-yard games (12). His season passing yards ranked 11th at SMU, while his 19 touchdowns tied him for eighth. Wide receiver Proche was named a first-team All-AAC selection, and finished the season ranked fifth nationally in receptions per game (7.8), seventh in receiving touchdowns (12) and ninth in receiving yards (1,199).

Prior to joining SMU's staff, Lashlee served as an offensive coordinator for seven seasons, spending 2017 at UConn, 2013-16 at Auburn, 2012 at Arkansas State and 2011 at Samford.

Prior to UConn, Lashlee helped Auburn to the 2013 SEC Championship, a BCS Championship berth and the 2016 Sugar Bowl, managing one of the more prolific offenses in college football during his tenure.

Lashlee was the offensive coordinator at Arkansas State (2012), helping the Red Wolves to a Sun Belt Championship, and at Samford (2011), after having served as a graduate assistant at Auburn (2009-10) and Arkansas (2006). While at Auburn as an offensive graduate assistant during the 2009-10 seasons, Lashlee helped the Tigers finish 14-0 in 2010, winning the SEC title and the BCS National Championship. Lashlee coached at Springdale (Ark.) High School in 2004-05.

Lashlee graduated from Arkansas in 2006 with a degree in marketing and business administration. He received his master's degree in higher education from Auburn in 2009.

He is married to the former Lauren Lee. They have twin sons, Thomas and Hudson, and twin daughters, Rowyn and Scarlet.

Empowering Education Throughout the State

PNM Donates to Schools Across New Mexico

PNM is giving school and non-profits across the Land of Enchantment a boost by donating $250,000 statewide. PNM is contributing funds to Albuquerque, Rio Rancho, Valencia, and the northern and southern regions of the state to help schools and families as they return to traditional or hybrid education settings. A portion of this money will also go towards a teacher's appreciation fund, so that our amazing educators don't have to spend money out of their own pockets to fill their classrooms with necessary supplies. The PNM contribution will also assist schools in the Jicarilla Apache, Mescalero Apache communities and Navajo Nation area chapters and the greater Farmington area.

SMU MUSTANGS

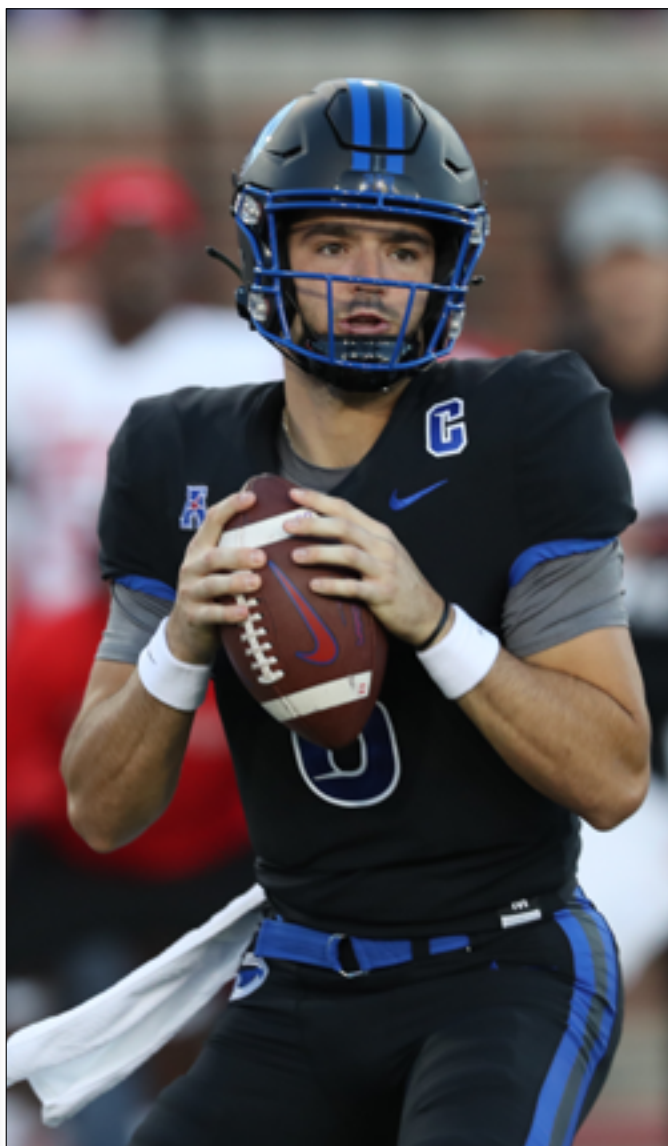

SEASON IN REVIEW

Head Coach Rhett Lashlee

SMU finished the 2022 regular season, the first under Head Coach Rhett Lashlee, 7-5 to become bowl eligible for the fourth straight season. The streak is the longest since SMU went to four bowls from 2009-12 and made the Mustangs bowl eligible in five of the past six seasons and nine of the past 14. The Mustangs used a three-game win streak with victories over Tulsa, Houston and USF to secure bowl eligibility.

QB Tanner Mordecai

SMU has won at least seven games each season dating back to 2019, making it the longest stretch with at least seven wins since the 2009-12 seasons. It is also the first season the Mustangs have won five conference games since going 6-2 in league play in 2019. The Mustangs have 32 wins, the most for a Power 6 team in Texas over the past four seasons.

SEASON IN REVIEW

TE RJ Maryland

Tanner Mordecai (Davey O'Brien) and Rashee Rice (Biletnikoff) were both listed among semifinalists for national position awards, and are both on the semifinalist list for the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award. Rice finished the regular season as the FBS leader in receiving yards (1,355) and receiving yards per game (112.9), while ranking fifth in receptions per game (8.0) and 11th in receiving TDs (10). His 1,355 yards sent the SMU single-season record. Mordecai, SMU's record holder for 300-yard games at 13, ranked in the top 10 nationally for passing TDs (31), passing yards per game (300.5) and points responsible for game (18.0).

As a team, SMU finished the regular season in the top 15 among FBS rankings for passing offense (5th, 324.9), scoring offense (11th, 38.4), total offense (12th, 279.8), first down offense (12th, 302), red zone offense (13th, .914), blocked kicks (8th, 4) and fewest penalties per game (10th, 4.42).

SMU had a record-setting day in the 77-63 win over Houston on Nov. 5. The Mustangs set the SMU record and tied the AAC record for points in a game and points in the first half (56). Mordecai set both the program and conference record for TD passes (9) and TDs responsible for (10), while also tying the NCAA record with seven passing TDs in the first half. Collin Rogers tied the AAC record and set the program record with 11 PATs, en route to a single-season record of 56 (56-56) for the Mustangs at the end of the regular season. SMU capped off the regular season with a 34-31 win over Memphis at home, bringing the Mustangs' record at Ford Stadium to 18-4 since the start of 2019.

Four Mustangs were honored as All-American Athletic Conference selections, including Rice who earned first-team honors. Elijah Chatman and Justin Osborne were named to the league's second team, while Jaylon Thomas was an honorable mention selection.

In SMU single-season rankings, the 2022 season ranks in the top three for scoring average (T3rd, 38.4), scoring (T3rd, 461), passing yards (3rd, 3,899) and passing yards per game (3rd, 324.9).

2022 Michael Danoff Memorial Scholarship

The Michael L. Danoff Memorial Scholarship Fund was established in 2021 for New Mexico high school students pursuing an education at a college, university, or secondary education. Inspired by the life of Michael (“Mike”) L. Danoff who passed away on September 15, 2021. Mike was a prominent attorney in Albuquerque, New Mexico, a New Mexico Bowl Board of Director member, New Mexico High School athlete, and attended the University of Arizona on a track Scholarship. Mike was an avid sports fan, and he was especially a fan of all New Mexico teams. He coached AAU basketball and spent countless hours trying to better the lives of New Mexico’s youth. Mike brought out the best in people and he was always encouraging New Mexico’s youth to pursue their education. The Michael L. Danoff Memorial Scholarship Fund is intended to help a worthy recipient fund a college education and to create a better way of life.

2022 Michael Danoff Memorial Scholarship Recipient Kennedy Gibbons

Kennedy is a native New Mexican who was raised in the small town of Ramah, New Mexico. She is currently a senior at Ramah High School participating in the McKinley Academy dual credit program. Kennedy is on track to graduate high school with her associates degree in liberal arts. She is a 4-sport athlete competing in basketball, track and field, volleyball, and is the captain of the cheerleading team. Kennedy is an active member in her community participating in many philanthropic and community service activities including blanket drives for the local Navajo Chapter through NHS, planning, and executing school events as a student council officer, and helping families who lost loved ones to COVID-19. Kennedy plans to pursue a career in exercise science. Kennedy exemplifies many of the great qualities and attributes that Mike Danoff possessed. The Michael Danoff Memorial Scholarship Fund and the Danoff family would like to congratulate Kennedy on her accomplishments and wish her well in her future academic and professional career.

NATIVE AMERICAN ART YOU CAN TRUST

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

Located 45 miles south of Salt Lake City in Provo, Utah, the BYU campus is situated 4,500 feet above sea level at the western base of the Wasatch Mountains, part of the Rocky Mountain Range. With a daytime enrollment of nearly 35,000 students, BYU is one of the nation's largest private universities.

Known for its academically minded and internationally experienced student body, its world-class teaching and its beautiful mountain location, BYU is also recognized for its extensive language programs, talented performing arts ensembles, outstanding sports programs and devotion to combining solid scholarship with the principles of the restored gospel of Jesus Christ.

BYU students come from all 50 states and more than 100 different countries. Nearly 50 percent of all BYU students have lived outside the United States and 65 percent of the student body at BYU speaks at least two languages. Overall, more than 130 different languages are spoken on campus and 70 different languages are taught regularly at BYU, while the university offers 229 study abroad programs in 80 different countries. The school boasts more than 450,000 alumni.

Brigham Young University seeks to develop students of faith, intellect and character who have the skills and the desire to continue learning and to serve others throughout their lives. These are the common aims of all education at BYU. Both those who teach in the classroom and those who direct activities outside the classroom are responsible for contributing to this complete educational vision. A BYU education strives to be spiritually strengthening, intellectually enlarging, character building and leading to lifelong learning and service.

Established in 1875, Brigham Young University provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the ideals and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The mission of Brigham Young University — founded, supported, and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints — is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance is provided through intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

Today, under the leadership of President Kevin J. Worthen, the university remains dedicated to the integration of academic excellence with faith in Jesus Christ and His restored gospel. KEVIN J WORTHEN

BYU PRESIDENT

In describing Kevin J. Worthen, 13th president of Brigham Young University, friends and colleagues use a variety of descriptors, some of them seemingly contradictory: brilliant yet unassuming, physically towering yet down-to-earth, visionary yet deferential. But when asked to introduce himself at the press conference following the March 2014 announcement of his new position, Worthen kept it simple: "I'm a BYU guy through and through."

It's an apt summation, as this institution has framed much of Worthen's life. From an early-childhood fascination with the university to degrees in political science and law to years as a professor and administrator, Worthen has been inspired by the mission and ideals of Brigham Young University.

Born April 15, 1956, in tiny Dragerton, Utah, Worthen was the last of four children. Friends and family remember Worthen as a precocious child—an early reader who thrived in school and was involved in just about every opportunity offered him. But more than anything, his teen years were defined by sports—especially basketball, a sport that saw him become an all-state center as a high school senior and later a captain for the College of Eastern Utah (CEU) Eagles.

Worthen has been an avid fan of Cougar sports since his childhood. At age 10, he attended his first basketball game in the Smith Fieldhouse, cheering on a squad that would win the National Invitational Tournament. Half a century later, his feelings haven't changed much. With just a couple of exceptions, his family has made an annual pilgrimage to BYU's conference basketball tournament since 1993.

After serving a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Monterrey, Mexico, Worthen dated Peggy Sealey while finishing an associate degree at CEU. The two were married in 1978 soon after Worthen transferred to BYU for his bachelor's degree. They now have three children and five grandchildren.

Graduating summa cum laude with both his bachelor's and juris doctor degrees, Worthen left BYU in 1982 to clerk for Judge Malcolm R. Wilkey of the D.C. Circuit Court and then for Justice Byron R. White of the U.S. Supreme Court. In 1984, Worthen joined the respected law firm Jennings Strouss & Salmon in Arizona, but his promising law-firm career proved to be short lived. In 1987, BYU came calling with an opportunity to return to the J. Reuben Clark Law School as a faculty member and Worthen jumped at the chance.

The Hugh W. Colton Professor of Law, Worthen specializes in federal Indian law and the rights of indigenous peoples. He spent a year as a Fulbright Scholar studying the cultural and ethnic assimilation of Chile's native populations.

From 2004 to 2008, he served as dean of the Law School before being named BYU's advancement vice president, in which role he oversaw such areas as athletics, BYU Broadcasting, LDS Philanthropies, alumni, and communications. In this role, he was involved in several significant developments in athletics, including going independent in football, joining the West Coast Conference, and negotiating television contracts with ESPN. This past year, Worthen was integral in BYU's admittance into the Big 12 Conference.

In his tenure as dean and vice president, and now as BYU president, Worthen has turned again and again to the mission of BYU, finding inspiration and motivating vision in the charge "to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life."

"There is a divine destiny at this school," Worthen declared in an April 2014 address, "and it [plays] out largely in the lives of our graduates and the influence that they have. ... To be part of an organization that has that kind of impact—an eternal impact on people's lives—it's a tremendous experience."

The right team makes all the difference.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Tom Holmoe was named Director of Athletics at Brigham Young University on March 1, 2005. He oversees a nationally recognized program with 21 intercollegiate sports, involving more than 600 student-athletes and a 190-person staff. Since his appointment, BYU has captured 128 conference regular-season and postseason championships, and more than 290 student-athletes have earned All-America status.

Holmoe was named the 2021 Athletics Director of the Year by the National Association of College Directors of Athletics. The ADOY Award highlights the efforts of athletics directors for their commitment and positive contributions to student-athletes, campuses and their surrounding communities. Holmoe was named one of four recipients at the FBS level, along with Matt Hogue (Coastal Carolina), Shane Lyons (West Virginia) and Rob Mullens (Oregon).

Under his leadership, Holmoe helped guide BYU to admittance into the Big 12 Conference. The Cougars will officially join the Big 12 on July 1, 2023. The Cougars compete in 21 sports, and the Big 12 sponsors every sport the Cougars compete in except men's volleyball. BYU's men's sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis, volleyball. Its women's sports are basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, softball, soccer, swimming & diving, tennis, and volleyball. The Cougars will participate in every sport sponsored by the Big 12 except equestrian, rowing, and wrestling.

In addition to his role as director of athletics, Holmoe served as a member of the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee from 2015-18 and was the Executive Council Committee Chair for the West Coast Conference from 2014-17. Over his 17-year tenure, BYU has an average ranking of 36th in the annual NACDA Learfield Directors' Cup, ranking all athletic programs in the country. For the 2020-21 athletic season, BYU finished No. 17 in the Directors' Cup standings. In the fall of 2022, for the first time ever, BYU finished No. 1 in the Directors' Cup standings for fall sports.

A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe returned to BYU in July 2001 as Associate Athletics Director for Development. As part of his responsibilities, he supervised the Cougar Club, served as the department's liaison with the LDS Foundation, served on the BYU Alumni Association Board of Directors and worked on the capital campaign to raise funds for the university's new athletic facilities.

A native of La Crescenta, Calif., Holmoe first came to BYU on a football scholarship in 1978. He earned first-team All-WAC honors as a senior in 1982 and was selected in the fourth round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Over a seven-year NFL career, he played on three Super Bowl championship teams with the 49ers in 1984, 1988 and 1989.

After retiring from professional football, Holmoe returned to BYU to serve as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards from 1990-91 and later accepted an offer from Hall of Fame coach Bill Walsh to become the Stanford secondary coach in 1992, where he remained for two seasons. In 1994, he returned to the 49ers as defensive backfield coach for two seasons, where he earned a fourth Super Bowl ring. Two years later Holmoe joined the University of California staff as defensive coordinator and later became the head coach from 1997-2001.

Holmoe graduated from BYU with a degree in Zoology in 1983 and received a master's degree from BYU in Athletic Administration in 1995. He and his wife, Lori, have four children and nine grandchildren.

KALANI SITAKE HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Kalani Sitake (pronounced kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay) is in his seventh season overseeing the BYU football program.

In his 22nd overall season as a coach in 2022, Sitake leads the program he once played for under Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards. A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake is the 14th head coach in BYU history and just the fourth since 1972, when Edwards took over the program. Sitake is the first former player under Edwards to be named head coach at BYU.

With a career record of 55-34, including back-to-back 10-win seasons in 2020 and 2021 and a 7-5 record in 2022, Sitake and his program will join the Big 12 conference in 2023. This year's New Mexico Bowl will be the 14th bowl game in which Sitake has coached during his career. In the prior 13 bowl games, he has been on the winning side 10 times, including a 3-2 mark as a head coach.

During his tenure, Sitake has helped the Cougars achieve notable wins over Baylor, Wisconsin, Michigan State, Mississippi State, Tennessee, USC, Utah, Arizona, Arizona State, Washington State and Boise State, among others. He has also championed BYU's Built4Life career development and NIL program. Built4Life is designed to support BYU student-athletes in developing critical life skills, facilitating professional development opportunities and connecting classroom learning directly to relevant employment opportunities.

Named BYU's head coach on December 19, 2015, Sitake returned to his alma mater from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 2015 under head coach Gary Andersen. Sitake took the helm at BYU after 15 years in the college coaching profession, which included seven seasons serving as a defensive coordinator and four years as an assistant head coach.

Prior to Oregon State, Sitake spent 10 seasons at the University of Utah under head coach Kyle Whittingham, also a former Cougar. Sitake started at Utah in 2005 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 before also being named assistant head coach in 2012. While at Utah, Sitake coached several Pac-12 and Mountain West Conference honorees, including Morris Trophy winners Star Lotulelei (2011) and Nate Orchard (2014).

During his career, Sitake has helped mentor 29 NFL Draft picks, including nine Cougars since taking over the program in 2016. Last year's starting running back Tyler Allgeier is making a difference as rookie in Atlanta, following the footsteps of recent Cougar draft picks such as No. 2 overall pick Zach Wilson and offensive tackle Brady Christensen among five players drafted in the 2021, linebackers Sione Takitaki and Fred Warner in 2019 and 2018 and running back Jamaal Williams in 2017. Among their many accomplishments, Williams, BYU's all-time rushing leader, paces the NFL in touchdowns in 2022 and Warner is widely regarded the top linebacker in the NFL.

Sitake began his coaching career in 2001 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Eastern Arizona before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at BYU in 2002 under Gary Crowton. Sitake then joined the staff at Southern Utah where he coached running backs, tight ends and offensive line during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

He began his BYU playing career in 1994 prior to serving a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Oakland, California. After returning and redshirting in 1997, Sitake was a three-year starter at fullback for the Cougars from 1998-2000 under Edwards. A team captain as a senior, Sitake's last game as a player was also the last game coached by the legendary Edwards, who was a great mentor for Sitake.

Born in Nuku'alofa, Tonga, and raised in Laie, Hawai'i and Provo, Utah, Sitake is the nation's first FBS head football coach of Tongan descent. He graduated from BYU in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in English. Sitake and his wife Timberly have four children.

BYU COUGARS

SEASON IN REVIEW

Cougar defensive lineman celebrates as BYU gets a stop against Baylor on Sept. 10 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. BYU's defense got the final say in a 26-20 double-overtime victory ending in a defensive stand.

BYU finished off a 2022 regular season 7-5, earning a bowl bid for the 17th time in 18 seasons.

The Cougars picked up Power 5 wins over Baylor and Stanford and a victory over regional rivals Boise State and Utah State while playing a strong overall schedule. Including its upcoming matchup with SMU, 10 of BYU's 12 FBS opponents in 2022 earned bowl bids—the most ever in the independence era.

BYU also earned a winning season for the 43rd time since LaVell Edwards became head coach of the program in 1972. Only nine programs—Ohio State, Oklahoma, Alabama, Michigan, Penn State, Georgia, USC, Florida and Boise State—have had more winning seasons in that timeframe. Prior to 1972, BYU had won just 173 games in 47 seasons. Since Edwards' takeover, BYU has won 437 games, which ranks No. 8 nationally.

BYU's offense ranks No. 32 nationally at 440.7 yards per game and averaged 31.9 points per game. The Cougars are led by one of college football's best passers in Jaren Hall, ranking No. 12 in pass efficiency rating at 160.83, totaling 3,171 passing yards and 31 passing touchdowns with only six interceptions. Hall also boasts three rushing touchdowns and one score as a receiver in 2022. He is just the third BYU quarterback (Steve Young, Brandon Doman) to throw for 3,000 yards and rush for 300 yards in the same season.

One of Hall's favorite targets is wide receiver Puka Nacua, who leads the team with 10 total touchdowns (5 rushing, 5 receiving) and has 48 receptions and 625 yards while rushing the ball 25 times for 209 yards in just nine games.

Wide receiver Keanu Hill has also been one of the most reliable options in the passing games, posting 36 receptions, 572 yards and a team-leading seven touchdowns. Outside of Nacua and Hill, BYU has four other receivers with at least 20 receptions on the season.

BYU COUGARS

SEASON IN REVIEW

BYU quarterback Jaren Hall reaches back to throw a pass against Baylor at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Hall's offensive line featured 2022 freshman All-American Kingsley Suamataia at right tackle clearing the way.

The running game features Christopher Brooks with a team-leading 729 rushing yards and five touchdowns while Hall, a dual-threat, is second on the team with 350 rushing yards.

BYU began the year with a dominant win over South Florida in Tampa, dropping the Bulls 50-21 in the season opener. The win sparked a top-25 matchup against Baylor in Provo the following week.

The Cougars and Bears put together one of the top games of the year, a slugfest going to double-overtime before BYU outlasted Baylor with a defensive stand to earn the win, 26-20.

BYU fell to nationally ranked Oregon at Autzen Stadium but responded with back-to-back wins over Wyoming and in-state foe Utah State the following weeks.

In a unique matchup in Las Vegas, the Cougars came up short to Notre Dame in annual Shamrock Series for the Irish. BYU's comeback effort ended in 28-20 defeat at Allegiant Stadium.

Injuries started to pile up for the Cougars over the next few weeks and BYU suffered three more consecutive defeats to Arkansas, Liberty and East Carolina, all bowl teams with two of the three running some of the most potent offenses in the country.

Trying to snap a four-game losing streak, a daunting task on the blue turf was just what the Cougars needed. BYU put together one of its most complete games of the year, beating Boise State 31-28 in Boise.

The game against the Broncos was back and forth and BYU's biggest stars showed up with 377 passing yards and four total touchdowns from Hall while Nacua had 14 receptions, 157 yards and two touchdowns, including the game-winner, a toe-tapping acrobatic grab on fourth down in the corner of the end zone with 1:46 to go. The Cougar defense held, and BYU came away with another signature win to get back on track.

The win was the spark to finish the regular season with three-straight victories, including a road win over Stanford to close the year and setup BYU's matchup with the SMU Mustangs in the 2022 New Mexico Bowl. This year's bowl game will be the second time the Cougars and Mustangs have met in a bowl matchup. The first contest between the two schools took place at the 1980 Holiday Bowl, when BYU completed one of the greatest comebacks in college football history by scoring 21 points over the final 2:33 of the game to beat the Mustangs 46-45.

BYU's top receiver Puka Nacua comes down with the game-winning touchdown reception at Boise State on Nov. 5 at Albertsons Stadium. Nacua caught it in the back corner of the end zone and touched his toe down, leading to a 31-28 win.

Wyoming trailed by 11 points in the fourth quarter. Its offense was led by a freshman quarterback, its defense was facing the nation's leading rusher. Time to worry? Not these comeback Cowboys. Freshman Austyn Carta-Samuels threw three touchdown passes, the last a 13-yarder to David Leonard in the second overtime Saturday. Wyoming (7-6) stopped the nation's leading rusher, Fresno State's Ryan Mathews, on three rushing attempts from the 1 in the first overtime. The Bulldogs (8-5) tried a quarterback sneak on third down, and Mathews came up short again on fourth down.

Temple's win marked the second straight year the visiting team took home the trophy. The win by the Mid-American Conference (MAC) member also snapped the Mountain West's four-game win streak. The Owls were the first at-large selection to the Gildan New Mexico Bowl to be victorious. Temple's Chris Coyer, the Offensive MVP, was 8-12 with 169 yards passing and 1 TD, plus 12 rushes for 71 yards. The Owls' Tahir Whitehead, the Defensive MVP, recorded 11 tackles (six solo, five assisted), 1.5 tackles for loss for 2 yards.

Arizona's Matt Scott rallied his team in the final 46 seconds, tossing two short touchdown passes for an improbable 49-48 win. The Wildcats recovered an onside kick in the last minute, setting up Scott's 2-yard toss to Tyler Slavin with 19 seconds left for the winning score. Arizona trailed 21-0 in the first quarter and was down 45-28 entering the final period. Scott threw for 382 yards and marched his team back into the game despite those two earlier interceptions. The nation's rushing leader, Ka'Deem Carey, gained 172 yards for the Wildcats. Arizona receiver Austin Hill caught eight passes for 175 yards and two touchdowns. The teams combined for 1,237 total yards. Stephon Jefferson, the nation's second-leading rusher, ran for 180 yards for Nevada.

For the second straight year, the winning team scored at least 10 points in the final minute to win the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. Colorado State trailed by 22 points (35-13) before coming back to beat Washington State 48-45 in the bowl season's opening game. That's tied for the 2nd-largest deficit overcome to win in a non-OT bowl game. The Rams got back in the game when Cougars running back Jeremiah Laufasa fumbled at the Cougars 33, setting up Kapri Bibbs' 1-yard score and Donnell Alexander's two-point conversion that tied it at 45 with 33 seconds left. Then, WSU's Teondray Caldwell fumbled a kickoff return at the 24, setting up Jared Roberts' 41-yard field goal as time expired. The teams combined for 58 points in the 1st half, which is a Gildan New Mexico Bowl record. It is tied for the 9th-most combined points in a half in bowl history (since 1937).

It wasn't a last-second victory like previous years but Utah State still churned out an improbable tale as the Aggies garnered a 21-6 win against UTEP, at times with its fifth-string quarterback leading the offense. The Vigil brothers were the other key component in USU's third straight bowl victory. Zach Vigil was named the Defensive MVP with game-high 11 tackles while younger brother, Nick, notched seven tackles and a touchdown. The Vigils, who combined for 553 career tackles to rank first at the FBS level among active brothers, helped hold UTEP to 149 rushing yards and no touchdowns.

It looked like another wild, comeback victory was going into the Gildan New Mexico Bowl record book. The New Mexico Lobos were working on a potential game-winning drive after trailing by 18 when the Arizona Wildcats thwarted it with an interception to secure the 45-37 win. The Wildcats' Anu Solomon took home the Offensive MVP award, throwing two touchdowns and rushing for another. He and the UofA offense needed just 19:38 minutes of possession to win their second bowl game in Albuquerque. Scooby Wright, III garnered the Defensive MVP honors with a game-high 15 tackles, including 11 solo, and 2 sacks.

New Mexico head coach Bob Davie earned his first career bowl victory when the Lobos beat UTSA. Despite the hype around New Mexico's triple-option threat and the Lobos leading the nation in rushing, the Roadrunners ran for more yards. Jarveon Williams ran for 125 yards for the Roadrunners, who lost in their first bowl appearance in the program's six-year history. UNM quarterback Lamar Jordan was voted as the Most Outstanding Offensive Player, leading the team in rushing (81 yards on 13 carries) and passing (3-4-0 for 77 yards). Linebacker Dakota Cox was named the Defensive MVP, tallying 10 tackles (6 solo), 1.5 tackles for loss (4 yards), and one breakup.

Leading up to the New Mexico Bowl, all talk was on Colorado State's explosive offense. But it was Marshall's offense that put on a show. Tyre Brady separated himself from Rams coverage and sprinted to a 76-yard touchdown reception for the first of three big scoring plays that allowed Thundering Herd hold off the Rams 31-28. He was joined by Keion Davis, who rushed for 141 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown run. Tyler King added a 90-yard rushing touchdown for the Herd. Chase Litton threw for 262 yards and two touchdowns, overshadowing the much-hyped CSU quarterback Nick Stevens, who was sacked five times. Utah State walked into the New Mexico Bowl with one of its best records in school history but uncertainty. Its head coach, Matt Wells, left to take the Texas Tech job. Interim coach Frank Maile had to prepare the Aggies with an army of graduate assistants and an announcement a new coach was coming next month.

North Texas, meanwhile, was coming into Albuquerque with experienced coach Seth Littrell and highly touted quarterback Mason Fine.

Jordan Love threw for 359 yards and four touchdowns and Jalen Greene had six catches for 151 yards and a score to help Utah State rout North Texas 52-13.

Maile directed the Aggies (11-2) even after Utah State announced former head coach Gary Andersen would return. However, Andersen opted not to attend the bowl game and let Maile finish what he started.

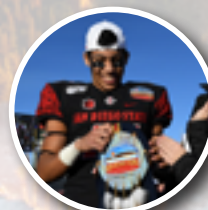

Love completed 21 of 43 passes with one interception. D.J. Williams had two interceptions, helping Utah State ground high-flying North Texas (9-4).

Aaren Vaughns caught two passes for 109 yards and two scores for the Aggies, Gerold Bright ran for 103 yards and two touchdowns on 16 carries, and Darwin Thompson added 93 yards on 21 carries.

Fresno State (10-3) won the bowl game for the first time in three tries. Jake Haener was 26 of 41 for 286 yards and a touchdown. His status had been in doubt when he briefly entered the transfer portal after coach Kalen DeBoer took the job at Washington. The Miners (7-6) pulled to 26-24 early in the fourth quarter on Calvin Brownholtz's 51-yard touchdown pass to Trent Thompson. Fresno State got a field goal, followed by a UTEP safety, before the Bulldogs ran out the clock. UTEP's Gavin Hardison threw for 252 yards and a touchdown. UTEP has lost the New Mexico Bowl in all three of its appearances and has a seven-game bowl losing streak dating to 1967.

The New Mexico Bowl trophy is one of the most unique in all of college sports. It is a Native American clay pot meticulously handcrafted by artists Marcellus and Elizabeth Media from the Zia Pueblo. The 20-inch bowl-shaped pottery features the iconic Zia sun symbol and images of football players, a deer, mountain lion, buffalo and eagle.

Elizabeth hand-coils and fires the pottery at the couple's home studio and her husband, Marcellus, paints the clay trophies. Using a white base coat on the pot makes the Zia patterns stand out after being hand-painted in black. His final touch is colored acrylic paints depicting football players in classic game stances and logos for the participating teams, not to mention the New Mexico Bowl insignia.

The New Mexico Bowl stuck with the unconventional for its Outstanding Offensive and Defensive Player Awards. They went to another Zia Pueblo artist, Ralph Aragon, who crafted the trophies from traditional leather shields.

Jeff Siembieda, New Mexico Bowl Executive Director, found all three artists in 2006 when he traveled to the pueblo, located approximately 30 miles northwest of Albuquerque, looking for permission to use the Zia sun in its logo. The tribal leaders gave their consent and in return, asked that Zia art be used for the awards.

"Three elements are the central core of harmony that defines each design: our culture, religious belief and spirituality which create the balance of inner peace. We have embraced all the beautiful scenery of New Mexico. Our inspiration for each pot comes from real life images, stories and imagination."

--Marcellus Medina

Zia Pueblo artist, Ralph Aragon crafts the Outstanding Player trophies from traditional leather shields. His quest for a unique way to express his creativity has led him to create "something different" for us to enjoy and images that "help preserve his culture and heritage".
