Welcome to the 2024 Isleta New Mexico Bowl!

This is a truly exciting time of year, filled with the spirit of the holidays and the thrilling culmination of a fantastic college football season. Congratulations to both teams on reaching today's game.

Isleta Pueblo, established in the 1300s, is located along the west bank of the Rio Grande, just south of Albuquerque. During the 18th and 19th centuries, it thrived as one of New Mexico's largest and most prosperous pueblos, known for its abundant crops and orchards. Today, we're proud to welcome visitors to a premier destination featuring our resort and casino.

Discover all we have to offer, from world-class golf, fishing, and camping to fine dining, vibrant nightlife, live entertainment, spa relaxation, and thrilling gaming. Ideally located near The University of New Mexico Stadium, the legendary "Pit," the Isleta Outdoor Amphitheater, and home to Isotopes Baseball.

As the proud sponsor of the Isleta New Mexico Bowl, Isleta Resort & Casino and Isleta Pueblo—also known by our Tiwa name, Tsugwevaga—wish both teams a spirited, competitive, and safe game. We extend our warmest wishes to everyone for a Happy New Year.

WELCOME FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

OWNED & OPERATED BY
A Message From Executive Director Jeff Siembieda

Happy Holidays and welcome to the 19th annual Isleta New Mexico Bowl!

As the college football postseason evolves with the expanded playoff, Bowl Season continues to hold a special place on the sport's landscape. Congratulations to both teams on a terrific season. I hope you have enjoyed the Isleta New Mexico Bowl experience and your time in the "Land of Enchantment".

I trust you have gotten to spend some time at the beautiful Isleta Resort and Casino. Our title partner, located just south of University Stadium is known national for its picturesque landscapes, lakes, golf course, spa, steakhouse, sports book, entertainment showroom and night club. We are proud to partner with this world-class destination and pillar in our community. Thank you to Governor Max Zuni, in-coming Governor Eugene Jiron, Tribal Council and all at Isleta who have made this expanded partnership possible.

As New Mexico's premier annual sports event, we are proud of our long-standing relationship with our presenting partners, both of whom have been with us since the game's inception. Thank you to the New Mexico Tourism Department, Secretary Lancing Adams and all at NMTD who support our event, and all sports tourism in our state. Thank you to Tania Armenta and Visit Albuquerque for your continued enthusiasm, support and vision which continues to allow our event to grow. Our state's leadership; Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham, and Albuquerque Mayor Tim Keller continue to make sure we are able to showcase the Land of Enchantment on a national stage annually. And a since "thank you" to our state's legislature for your continued support,

And then.... there is the backbone of our event! Our executive board, corporate partners and staff, who show an enthusiastic loyalty, vigor and passion for this game are the reason we are coming up on our second decade. I can't say thank you enough to all of you who have invested not only monetarily, but with your time and emotion. Thank you for your continued friendship and support!

To those of you who are guests today, whether you traveled from afar or live here in New Mexico, enjoy the game. Our setting is one of the most beautiful and unique in the world. Take in the flavor, culture, diversity, hospitality and natural beauty that make New Mexico such a special place.

Have fun today....thanks for being here and Happy New Year!
Best,

Jeff Siembieda

Michael Danoff Memorial Scholarship

The Michael L. Danoff Memorial Scholarship Fund was established in 2021 for New Mexico high school students pursuing an education at a college, university, or secondary education. Inspired by the life of Michael (“Mike”) L. Danoff who passed away on September 15, 2021. Mike was a prominent attorney in Albuquerque, New Mexico, an Isleta New Mexico Bowl Board of Director member, New Mexico High School athlete, and attended the University of Arizona on a track Scholarship. Mike was an avid sports fan, and he was especially a fan of all New Mexico teams. He coached AAU basketball and spent countless hours trying to better the lives of New Mexico’s youth. Mike brought out the best in people and he was always encouraging New Mexico’s youth to pursue their education. The Michael L. Danoff Memorial Scholarship Fund is intended to help a worthy recipient fund a college education and to create a better way of life.

2024 Michael Danoff Memorial Scholarship Recipients: Dominic Quintana

Dominic Quintana is a New Mexico native who is currently a senior at Albuquerque High School. Dominic has a 3.75 unweighted GPA. Dominic is a member of the Albuquerque High Student Senate and is currently the Student Body Vice President. Through school senate and other various organizations, Dominic has been actively involved in community service to include The Adopt-a-Child event which provides gifts around the holidays to students from local elementary schools that might not otherwise get gifts for the holidays. Dominic has also volunteered with the Albuquerque Police Department’s Summer Camp Fearless program. Dominic has participated in basketball, cross country, and track and field at Albuquerque High. After graduating from Albuquerque High, Dominic will be pursuing his college education and hopes to serve his country in one of the service academies. He plans to major in business, prelaw, or sports medicine.

Dominic exemplifies many of the great qualities and attributes that Mike Danoff possessed. The Michael Danoff Memorial Scholarship Fund and the Danoff family would like to congratulate Dominic on his accomplishments and wish him well in his future academic and professional career.

LOUISIANA

TCU

2024 ISLETA NEW MEXICO BOWL

The 19th Annual Isleta New Mexico Bowl will kick-off from University Stadium in Albuquerque with yet another one of the most anticipated matchups with the TCU Horned Frogs taking on the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns.

TCU (8-4, 6-3 Big 12 Conference) is not only making its own first appearance in the New Mexico Bowl, but the Big 12 Conference's official debut as well. (BYU played it's last game as an Independent before joining the Big 12 in 2022)

Completing their 119th season of football, the Horned Frogs have come on strong down the home stretch winning five of their last six games, with the only loss coming on a last second field goal on the road.

TCU's offense ranks 30th nationally with nearly 432 yards per game and 28th in the nation in points per game at 33.4.

Josh Hoover leads the way for the Frogs at quarterback, having thrown for 3,697 yards and 23 scores on the season. His favorite target, receiver Jack Bech, hauled in 61 receptions and and 9 of the 23 Hoover passing scores for an astounding 1,034 yards.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacker Johnny Hodges led TCU with 87 tackles and Safety Bub Clark was able to nab three interceptions to go with his 65 tackles.

The 2024 Isleta New Mexico Bowl marks the 35th bowl game in the Horned Frogs' history dating back to the 1936 Sugar Bowl and first since they both played in the Fiesta Bowl in December 2022 and the College Football Playoff National Championship in January 2023.

Matching TCU and making their own first appearance in Albuquerque is Louisiana. The Ragin' Cajuns are the first Sun Belt Conference team to roam the sidelines of The New Mexico Bowl.

Louisiana (10-3, 9-2 Sun Belt Conference) is fresh off hosting the Sun Belt Conference Championship and marks the third time in the last four years that a 10-win team is playing in the Isleta New Mexico Bowl.

The Ragin' Cajun offense boast incredibly similar numbers to their opponents, ranking 31st in the country in both offensive yards per game at 431 and points per game at 33.1.

They are led by the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year Ben Wooldridge at QB who amassed 2,392 yards in the air with 17 touchdowns and a 68.3 percent completion percentage coupled with 192 yards and 5 scores on the ground. Lance LeGendre caught 48 passes for 814 yards and 6 touchdowns for the Cajuns.

Louisiana's backfield saw four different runners get over 60 carries on the year, paced by Bill Davis with 154 for 775 yards and 9 touchdowns. Zylan Perry (101 carries for 646 yards) and Dre'lyn Washington (73 totes for 478 yards) round out the other three major contributors along with Wooldridge (61 runs) for the run game that had 26 touchdowns overall.

Defensively the Cajuns collected 20 turnovers and 28 sacks, paced by K.C. Ossai with 110 tackles while Tyrone Lewis Jr. and Tyree Skipper hauled in 4 picks each.

Today's game marks the 13th bowl game in Ragin' Cajun history and gives Louisiana a chance to match their second-best record (11-3 in 2019) in the 52 years of football in Lafayette.

TCU and Louisiana have never squared off against each other in football.

SUN BELT CONFERENCE

KEITH GILL • COMMISSIONER

Keith Gill, who was named the Sun Belt Conference's sixth commissioner on March 19, 2019, has directed the Sun Belt through an historic period in college athletics that saw the Football Bowl Subdivision league become a 14-member football conference across 10 contiguous states. James Madison, Marshall, Old Dominion and Southern Miss all became full members on July 1, 2022. In addition, Gill has facilitated the return of men's soccer and women's swimming & diving and the launch of beach volleyball as conference sports during his tenure.

In the College Football Playoff era (since 2014), the Sun Belt owns a .571 bowl winning percentage, trailing only the SEC (.584). In 2023, the Sun Belt had a conference-record and national-best 12 Bowl Season participants—outpacing the totals from the ACC (11), Big Ten (9), Big 12 (9), SEC (9) and Pac-12 (8). The Sun Belt has led all non-autonomy conferences in Bowl Season representation in 2022 (7), 2023 (12) and 2024 (8).

The conference has boasted multiple 10-win teams for seven-straight seasons, has claimed three-or-more victories over autonomy five programs for three-straight years and has hosted ESPN'S College GameDay three times over the past five seasons.

The Sun Belt has enjoyed broad-based success during Gill's tenure, having been a multi-bid league in baseball, softball, men's soccer, women's soccer, volleyball and men's golf. The Sun Belt was one of five conferences—joining the ACC, Big 12, Pac-12 and SEC—to produce an NCAA Super Regional qualifier in both baseball and softball in 2023.

From the beginning, Gill established priorities for the Sun Belt Conference, emphasizing the academic success and personal development of student-athletes. He has successfully expanded the league's national profile through branding and inclusion initiatives.

The Sun Belt is showcased through a media rights partnership with ESPN that runs through the 2030-31 academic year. For the 13th consecutive year in 2024, every Sun Belt home football game appeared on an ESPN platform.

During the 2020-21 academic year, Gill guided the conference through the COVID-19 pandemic and his leadership made it possible for the membership to safely complete full seasons in all sponsored sports, including 39 of 40 regular-season football games.

Gill's work regarding inclusion and racial inequity included the launch of the BE THE CHANGE initiative in June 2020, demonstrating to SBC student-athletes the value of being civic minded throughout their lives. The conference also established and encouraged its teams and fans to visit the Sun Belt Conference Civil Rights Trail, which highlights historic sites and landmarks found in the geographic footprint of its member schools.

Gill, the first Black Commissioner in FBS history, is a member of the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee on a five-year term that runs through the 2025-26 campaign. He is the Vice Chair of the Committee for the 2024-25 season and will be the Chair of the group for the 2025-26 campaign. Gill also sits on the NCAA Division I Nominating Committee and the NCAA Playing Rules Oversight Panel (PROP).

A 25-year veteran of intercollegiate athletics, Gill previously served as Executive Associate Commissioner at the Atlantic 10 Conference (2017-19) and the Director of Athletics at Richmond (2013-17) and American (2007-12). He also worked in the athletics departments at Oklahoma and Vanderbilt, along with two stints in the membership services department at the NCAA national office, where he began his career as a postgraduate intern.

Gill graduated from Duke University as a four-year football student-athlete in 1994 and earned his master's degree from Oklahoma in 2006.

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISIANA AT LAFAYETTE

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette's more than 19,000 students attend a world-renowned research institution spread across a 1,500-acre campus of handsome red brick buildings and natural beauty.

Things looked far different circa July 14, 1898. That's when it all began for the new Southwestern Louisiana Industrial Institute.

The first brick was laid in 1900, and then classes began in September 1901. Enrollment topped out at 145 students. A few classrooms dotted a patch of barren farmland. Degree programs included agriculture, stenography and mechanics.

The University's first president? He was one of the nation's youngest, a 27-year-old named Edwin Stephens. History has nevertheless proven Stephens had the right vision for the fledgling agricultural college.

Today, Dr. Joseph Savoie, the University's sixth president, oversees the state's second-largest public institution. The University is an international leader in computer science, engineering and nursing. But that only counts a few of the more than 240 stellar undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral programs. Or, to put the last century or so in perspective, enough degree options to outnumber the entire original student body.

DR. JOSEPH SAVOIE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Dr. E. Joseph Savoie is the sixth president of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

He returned to his alma mater as president in July 2008.

Savoie was formerly the Commissioner of Higher Education for the State of Louisiana, where he was involved in several major postsecondary education reforms, including:

- the restructuring of higher education governance;
- creation of the Louisiana Community and Technical College System;
- teacher, education, and school reform initiatives;
- the state's Master Plan for Public Postsecondary Education; and
- the promotion of collaboration within the entire education community.

Under his leadership, financial support for public postsecondary education more than doubled and Louisiana's colleges and universities became more engaged in addressing Louisiana's economic and social challenges. Savoie was a cabinet member in three governors' administrations – M. J. “Mike” Foster, Kathleen Blanco, and Bobby Jindal.

Prior to his appointment as Commissioner of Higher Education, he served in many roles on the UL Lafayette campus, including vice president for University Advancement, executive director of the Alumni Association, program director for the Union Program Council, student government advisor and adjunct assistant professor. He holds bachelor's and master's degrees in education from UL Lafayette and earned a doctor of education in educational leadership and administration from Columbia University's Teachers College in New York.

DR. BRYAN MAGGARD VICE PRESIDENT FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

A new era in Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns Athletics began on Feb. 1, 2017, when Dr. Bryan Maggard was introduced as Director of Athletics. In his nearly eight years leading the Ragin' Cajuns, Maggard has continued to bring new excitement to the Louisiana fan base while finding unique ways to build on one of college athletics' most unique brands.

After being elevated to Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics in June 2021, Maggard oversaw what is likely one of the most successful years in Ragin' Cajuns Athletics history after Football won its first outright Sun Belt Conference Championship at Cajun Field and both Baseball and Softball won conference titles and represented Louisiana in the 2022 NCAA Regionals.

At the end of the 2021 Football campaign, Maggard named the newest head coach of Ragin' Cajuns Football, former assistant coach and quarterback, Michael Desormeaux. Desormeaux made an immediate impact on the program in his new role, guiding the team to an impressive 36-21 victory over Marshall in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl to cap off the team's historic 13-1 season.

In addition to the on-field success, Louisiana experienced its most successful year in fundraising in 2021-22 after the Department raised more than $30 million. One of those gifts was $15 million from Our Lady of Lourdes to secure the stadium naming rights for Cajun Field, the largest gift in Department history.

The 2020-21 athletic year saw the Football program win the Sun Belt Conference title and secure a victory in the SERVPRO First Responders Bowl, a 31-24 win over UTSA. Women's Basketball, competing in its 50th season, won the program's first-ever Sun Belt crown, while Softball won the regular season and tournament titles.

In 2019, Maggard and his administration spearheaded the "Let's Geaux" strategic plan. The three-year plan features three overall priorities: student-athlete experience, fiscal and facility management and cULTure. Benchmarks and measurable successes will be tracked as the Department of Athletics works through the upcoming years.

Maggard also led the charge in inking the department's first-of-its-kind, 10-year multimedia rights partnership with Learfield in March 2018. Learfield, and its local extension, Ragin' Cajuns Sports Properties, have worked tirelessly to expand the brand of the Ragin' Cajuns both locally, regionally and nationally.

Ragin' Cajuns Football has long been an exciting part of any athletic year, and that tradition carried on under former head coach Billy Napier, who Maggard selected to lead the program in 2017. Under Napier, the program won four consecutive West Division titles and back-to-back Sun Belt crowns in 2020 and 2021 while compiling an overall record of 40-12.

Supporting the life blood of any program, the recruitment of talented student-athletes, has been a matter of importance to Maggard during his time with the Ragin' Cajuns. That point of emphasis has paid dividends with Louisiana Football for the 2019 and 2020 signing classes, as both groups were rated as the No. 1 recruiting class in the Sun Belt Conference by 247Sports.com. Louisiana Softball also secured the No. 1 recruiting class in the nation in 2021.

Maggard, a native of Dexter, Kansas, joined the Ragin' Cajuns in 2017 after spending 22 years at the University of Missouri where he last served as the Tigers' Executive Associate Athletic Director.

During his tenure at Missouri, Maggard provided leadership for numerous areas within the Department of Athletics to include academic services, athletic dining, athletic performance, equipment operations, sport and counseling psychological services, sports medicine, student-athlete development as well as the revenue-generating units of development, marketing, ticketing and multi-media rights. Additionally, Maggard was very involved in assisting the athletic department with its transition into the Southeastern Conference.

Maggard taught Sport Management courses at Mizzou, as an adjunct professor, where he assisted campus leaders in establishing a Sport Management degree program. Maggard was also a member of the University of Missouri Graduate Faculty and served on doctoral examination and dissertation committees.

Prior to his stint at Missouri, Maggard had stops at Florida State University and Kansas State University, overseeing the academic support services for the Seminole and Wildcat football programs respectively.

Maggard received a bachelor's degree in journalism and a master's degree in health and physical education, both from Kansas State University. He received a Ph.D. in Educational and Counseling Psychology from the University of Missouri. He and his wife, Kerry, are proud parents of three children, Dalton, Aubrey, and Kaylin.

MICHAEL DESORMEAUX HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

In three seasons as the helm, former University of Louisiana record-setting quarterback Michael Desormeaux returned the Ragin' Cajuns to prominence as head coach after being named the program's 27th head coach on Dec. 5, 2021.

Named the 2024 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, the 39-year-old Desormeaux guided Louisiana to its fourth 10-win season in school history, the Sun Belt Conference West Division championship and its seventh consecutive appearance during #BowlSeason.

After posting back-to-back 6-7 records in his first two seasons, Desormeaux guided Louisiana to a 10-3 record, the SBC West Division title, its SBC-leading fifth appearance in the SBC Championship Game.

Desormeaux became the second coach in school history to lead his team to a perfect 6-0 record on the road, including a 41-38 win at Wake Forest – the Cajuns' first over a P4 opponent since knocking off Iowa State in 2020.

Louisiana finished the regular season ranked second nationally among FBS programs in red zone offense (.947), second in total fumbles lost (2), third in turnovers lost (8), ninth in turnover margin (+12, 1.00), 11th in team passing efficiency (161.98), 15th in scoring offense (35.6), 18th in 3rd down conversion percentage (.464) and 18th in total offense (445.7).

Prior to being appointed head coach, Desormeaux joined the coaching staff at Louisiana in 2016, and helped the program reach new heights as the Ragin' Cajuns won four consecutive Sun Belt West Division titles (2018-21) and won its first outright Sun Belt Championship in program history with Desormeaux serving as Co-Offensive Coordinator during the 2021 season.

Desormeaux, who was the only member of the coaching staff retained by Billy Napier, spent four years developing as a signal caller under Napier. Desormeaux's offense ranked third in the Sun Belt in both scoring offense (31.2) and total offense (397.6) during the historic 2021 campaign and helped the team secure a program record 13 wins.

In 2020, Desormeaux saw the Ragin' Cajuns rank 29th in the nation in scoring offense (33.6 ppg) and played a key role in the team's rushing attack ranking 21st nationally with 213.0 yards per game.

He was on staff at Louisiana in 2016 and 2017, working with the wide receivers and running backs, respectively. Over those two seasons, he developed and helped recruit some of the top talent in Ragin' Cajuns history, including former running back Trey Ragas and former wideouts Ja'Marcus Bradley and Al Riles.

Desormeaux is also a relentless recruiter, playing an instrumental role in the team securing the top recruiting class in the Sun Belt in 2019, 2020 and 2021. With his influence, the Ragin' Cajuns signed the top recruiting class among SBC schools in 2023.

A standout player for Louisiana, Desormeaux passed for 3,893 yards and 23 touchdowns while rushing for 2,843 yards and 16 scores. He was named All-Sun Belt Conference three times as an all-purpose specialist before being named the league's Offensive Player of the Year after throwing for 1,876 yards while rushing for 1,035 yards.

He became the eighth quarterback in NCAA history to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons after rushing for 1,141 yards as a junior in 2007. Under his guidance, the Cajuns offense led the SBC in total yards, rushing yards, yards per game, rushing yards per game, yards per play, third down conversion percentage and touchdowns.

Desormeaux led the Sun Belt in passing efficiency in SBC only games and broke Jake Delhomme's single-season school record for passing efficiency. After concluding his career with the Ragin' Cajuns, Desormeaux signed a free agent contract as a defensive back with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars.

He was inducted into the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF) Hampshire Honor Society after graduating in December 2008 with a cumulative grade-point-average of 3.91.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2010-13.

Desormeaux and his wife, Lindsey, are the parents of two children, Thomas and Elle.

SEASON IN REVIEW

Head Coach Michael Desormeaux

#10 QB Ben Woolldridge

After back-to-back 6-7 campaigns, Louisiana returned to its standard under head coach Michael Desormeaux, posting a 10-2 overall record during the regular season and a 7-1 mark in the Sun Belt Conference.

With a veteran lineup returning, the Ragin' Cajuns claimed their school-record seventh consecutive appearance in a bowl game while earning a fifth appearance in the Sun Belt Conference Football Championship Game.

Louisiana's 10 wins marked the fourth time in school history – and all within the past six seasons – with double-digit victories while the Ragin' Cajuns achieved a perfect 6-0 record on the road for the second time in school history and first since 2020.

Desormeaux, the 2008 Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year as a senior at UL, earned Coach of the Year honors as Louisiana placed 15 players on the all-conference team.

Led by 2024 SBC Offensive Player of the Year Ben Woolldridge, the Ragin' Cajuns ranked as one of most efficient offenses in FBS, finishing the regular season ranked second nationally in red zone offense (.947), second in total fumbles lost (2), third in turnovers lost (8), ninth in turnover margin (+12, 1.00), 11th in team passing efficiency (161.98), 15th in scoring offense (35.6), 18th in third-down conversion percentage (.464) and 18th in total offense (445.7).

Woolldridge finished as the SBC leader in passing efficiency (159.42) and was third among SBC quarterbacks in passing yards (239.2) during the regular season. The Pleasanton, Calif., native ranked fourth overall among SBC signal-callers in total offense (258.4) and ranked 11th among FBS quarterbacks in passing efficiency and 12th in completion percentage (.683).

Louisiana opened the season with lopsided wins over in-state opponent Grambling and on the road at FBS newcomer Kennesaw State before dropping a 41-33 contest to in-state rival Tulane.

SEASON IN REVIEW

#21 RB Zylan Perry

After the one-score setback to the Green Wave, Louisiana would play four of its next five games on the road beginning with a trip to face Atlantic Coast Conference member Wake Forest. The Ragin' Cajuns never trailed and Kenneth Almendares converted a field goal with just over a minute remaining to claim a 41-38 victory.

Louisiana would follow with a win at Southern Miss in its SBC opener – only the Ragin' Cajuns second victory in Hattiesburg in 26 overall contests – before returning home and defeating App State, 34-24.

The Ragin' Cajuns would head back out on the road for their next two games, earning a 34-24 win at Coastal Carolina before defeating highly-touted Texas State, 23-17, in a nationally-televised contest.

Back home for three straight games, Louisiana would celebrate Homecoming with a convincing 55-19 win over Arkansas State but would see its six-game win streak snapped the following week in a 24-22 decision to South Alabama.

Louisiana trailed 24-3 at halftime and early in the third quarter, lost Wooldridge to injury for the remainder of the regular season. Backup quarterback Chandler Fields, a starter for Louisiana in parts of the previous two seasons, would engineer a 19-point rally in the second half, but a potential game-tying, two-point conversion was stopped.

Fields guided the Ragin' Cajuns over the final two games of the regular-season, tossing for a career-high 323 yards in a 51-30 win over Troy on Senior Day before guiding the Ragin' Cajuns to a 37-23 win over ULM to secure a berth in the SBC Championship Game.

Almendares, named the Lou Groza Award winner honoring the nation's top collegiate kicker, was near automatic for the Ragin' Cajuns finishing 27-for-29 in field goals with his lone misses coming from 53 and 60 yards. The Clute, Texas native set both the UL and SBC record for most career field goals (68) and the UL career record for scoring (362), and PATs (158).

K.C. Ossai led a defensive unit under first-year defensive coordinator Jim Salgado, ranking third overall among SBC players tackles (110) while helping the Ragin' Cajuns rank among the league leaders in total defense, scoring defense and passing yards allowed.

BRETT YORMARK • COMMISSIONER

Recognized as one of the most dynamic and innovative executives in sports and entertainment, Brett Yormark began his tenure as the fifth commissioner of the Big 12 Conference on August 1, 2022. He previously held positions at Roc Nation, Brooklyn Sports & Entertainment and NASCAR.

In his brief time as Commissioner of the Big 12, Yormark has elevated the Conference to new heights. Yormark executed a media rights deal with ESPN and Fox, a deal that will run through 2030-31. Additionally, Yormark has placed an emphasis on marketing, brand building and storytelling that has resonated across the college athletics landscape. In the first two years of his tenure, Yormark has overseen the early departure of Oklahoma and Texas as well as the integration of eight new Big 12 members. Additionally, he led a revamping of the Big 12 Football and Basketball Championships that resulted in revenue and digital engagement highs. Yormark has taken an innovative approach to ensure the Conference resides in places it never has before, creating the first-ever Big 12 Business Advisory Board, executing a partnership with the National Football League to operate a conference-wide Pro Day, teaming up with New York City Parks Department for a summer activation at historic Rucker Park, and bringing celebrity talent such as Fat Joe, Ashanti, Shaq and DJ Khaled into the Big 12 marketing fold.

Yormark served three years as the COO of Roc Nation and Co-CEO of Roc Nation Unified before moving to the Big 12. Roc Nation is a full-service entertainment company supporting a diverse roster of talent via artist management, music publishing, touring, production, strategic brand development and more. The client list includes some of the world's most recognizable names in the entertainment and sports worlds, such as Rihanna, Alicia Keys, DJ Khaled, Robin Thicke, Megan Thee Stallion, Christina Aguilera, LaMelo Ball, Romelu Lukaku and Kevin De Bruyne. The company was founded in 2008 by JAY-Z and has offices in New York City, London and Los Angeles.

Yormark joined the company in the fall of 2019 and in his role as COO, focused on optimizing operational resources and building company infrastructure to support continued growth. Yormark also supervised sponsorship, licensing, content partnerships, and brand strategy. In addition, he spearheaded Roc Nation Unified, the organization's commercial and consultative arm that works with artists, athletes, leagues, teams, and brands.

Prior to Roc Nation, Yormark spent 14 years as President and CEO of Brooklyn Sports & Entertainment (BSE) Global, which manages and controls Barclays Center, the Brooklyn Nets, and the Nets' NBA G League team, the Long Island Nets. During his tenure, he also expanded BSE's venue footprint by leading the renovation, reopening and subsequent operation of NYCB LIVE, home of the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum on Long Island, and Manhattan's iconic Webster Hall. While at BSE Global, Yormark had oversight for all facets of Barclays Center and NYCB LIVE, including operations, event programming, sales, and marketing.

Under his leadership, Barclays Center and NYCB LIVE were consistently named among the industry's top venues worldwide in ticket sales by leading industry publications such as Billboard, Pollstar, and VenuesNow. Yormark brought the hottest names in music to the venues under his purview, including opening Barclays Center with eight consecutive nights of sold-out shows from legendary rapper JAY-Z. Barclays Center and NYCB LIVE also welcomed legends including Barbra Streisand, Bruce Springsteen, Beyoncé, Billy Joel, Elton John, Coldplay, J. Cole, Kendrick Lamar, Pearl Jam, and many more.

On the sports side of the business, he brought professional boxing back to Brooklyn for the first time since 1931 and saw Barclays Center host dozens of world championship fight nights. College basketball also became a mainstay in Brooklyn, with Yormark securing agreements to host the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, the ACC Men's Basketball Tournament, and the Atlantic 10 Men's Basketball Tournament, alongside matchups between many of the nation's top programs such as Kentucky, Kansas, Duke, and North Carolina, among others.

Before BSE Global, Yormark worked for NASCAR for six years, where he helped build the stock-car racing company into a major sports property. Yormark was named the maximum three times to the "Forty Under 40" list by Sports Business Journal and was selected twice to the "40 Under 40" list by Crain's New York Business. He is also on the board of the City Parks Foundation, the TJ Martell Foundation and NYC & Company.

Yormark is the proud father of Madison and Drake, and is married to Elaina Scotto.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY

Texas Christian University (TCU) spans 302 beautiful acres located just minutes from downtown Fort Worth, part of the nation's fourth-largest metro area. Students experience a combination found at few—if any—other colleges: a close-knit campus that offers personalized attention as well as the opportunities and amenities of a large university, including Big 12 athletics, vibrant student life and top-ranked facilities and student support services.

Founded in 1873, TCU is a top national private university with nine schools and colleges, each committed to academic excellence, student success and providing a values-centered education. The innovative Anne Burnett Marion School of Medicine stands out as the first in the nation to fully integrate communication throughout its four-year curriculum, with a state-of-the-art medical education building in Fort Worth's medical district. This pioneering approach to medical education reflects TCU's commitment to innovative learning and professional development.

The university's distinctive teacher-scholar model emphasizes both research and student mentorship, with 98% of faculty teaching undergraduates. This commitment to personalized education creates an environment where students can forge meaningful connections with professors while engaging in cutting-edge research and scholarship.

Through faculty mentorship and experiential learning opportunities, TCU's mission focuses on creating global citizens in an inclusive educational environment.

TCU builds on its legacy of fostering critical thinking, service to others and empowering Horned Frogs to Lead On®. This dedication to holistic education and student development has established TCU as a premier institution where academic excellence meets real-world impact, preparing graduates to make meaningful contributions in their communities and beyond.

VICTOR J. BOSCHINI, JR. CHANCELLOR

Chancellor Victor J. Boschini, Jr., Texas Christian University's 10th Chancellor, is in his 22nd year as Chancellor in 2024. As a TCU leader, educator and visionary for over two decades, Chancellor Boschini has earned a renowned reputation for his commitment to successfully advancing TCU's mission and vision. In June 2025, Dr. Boschini will transition to the role of Chancellor Emeritus; he will continue to office in The Harrison and work on behalf of TCU, fulfilling his duties of friend-raising, fundraising and as chief enrollment officer, as well as continue to teach students in the classroom.

Together with TCU's executive team, Boschini is championed for developing TCU's unmatched student experience, academic excellence, athletic strength and unique culture of connection, which has become the hallmark of the TCU experience. Under his leadership, the university has grown in prestige and national distinction and consistently ranks among the top universities in the nation.

TCU's most exceptional achievements over the last two decades include: the establishment of the Anne Burnett Marion School of Medicine at TCU; the growth of the university's endowment to over $2.6 billion, with the completion of the $1 billion Lead On: A Campaign for TCU in support of the university's people and programs in fall of 2023; vast changes to the physical campus enabling the university to support strategic increases in enrollment and residence life; and outstanding athletics success competing in the highest level of NCAA Division I sports. TCU celebrated these milestones and more during its Sesquicentennial in 2023, "Lead On: Celebrating 150 Years of TCU."

Boschini is a member of the President's Council of the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges and is a member of the Fulbright Scholar Advisory Board. He also sits on the boards of the Van Cliburn Foundation, the University of Mount Union and is an Emeritus board member of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra. He received recognition from the Institute of International Education with the IIE Centennial Medal and serves as a Commissioner for the Council on Higher Education as a Strategic Asset. Boschini also serves as a member of the Advisory Council for Education for the Global Tech Security Commission. He has served as Chairman of the Big 12 Conference and Mountain West Conference as well as the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities. Boschini came to TCU from Illinois State University, where he served as president. Before ISU, he held administrative and teaching positions at DePauw, Butler and Indiana universities.

Chancellor Boschini and TCU First Lady Megan Boschini are actively engaged on campus and in the greater Fort Worth community. They attend various campus events and activities and typically participate in Frog Camp, where they enjoy meeting new students each summer. Together, they are committed to ensuring that TCU achieves its vision as a world-class, values-centered university that offers a premier student experience. They both believe that we share the responsibility — and the honor — to shape and transform the leaders who will shape and transform our world.

DANIEL W. PULLIN UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Daniel W. Pullin, an accomplished educator, leader and innovator, was conferred as Texas Christian University President during an Investiture ceremony in November 2023. He is tapped to become TCU's 11th Chancellor in June 2025, as part of the leadership succession plan announced by the TCU Board of Trustees and Chancellor Victor J. Boschini, Jr.

President Pullin blends his foundation in world-renowned business organizations with nearly 20 years of higher education experience to support and advance TCU's mission. Following the successful completion of TCU's historic Sesquicentennial in 2023, the Board of Trustees charged Pullin to develop a new strategic plan to guide TCU to a sustainable future, ensuring TCU remains a powerful force for the greater good and advances its mission for the next 150 years.

Approved by the Board in November 2024, TCU's new strategic plan, LEAD ON: Values in Action is a bold, innovative plan that builds on TCU's momentum and position of strength to lead TCU to new heights and greater levels of student success. Guided by the TCU Values of Integrity, Engagement, Community and Excellence, and inclusive of input from more than 10,000 stakeholders, the new strategic plan enhances TCU's excellence in student-centered growth, research, scholarship and creative activities, athletics and community engagement.

In addition to strategic planning and operational oversight, Pullin's executive leadership supports TCU's focus on academic excellence, student success, community engagement and campus culture. He continues to teach as professor of entrepreneurship and innovation.

Pullin joined TCU in 2019 as the John V. Roach Dean of the Neeley School of Business and over the next four years, Neeley experienced faculty and staff growth and curriculum innovation, increased national visibility and community engagement, development success; and implemented a commitment to inclusive excellence. Prior to TCU, Pullin was the Dean of the Price College of Business at the University of Oklahoma, where he also served as university vice president. Before transitioning to higher education, Pullin worked for global consultancy McKinsey & Company and the private equity firm Hicks Muse Tate & Furst and its portfolio companies.

Honored as one of Fort Worth, Inc.'s 400 Most Influential People in Fort Worth and D CEO Magazine's 500 Most Influential Business Leaders in North Texas, Pullin has won several awards for teaching, innovation and academic integrity. He is committed to civic leadership, serving on the Fort Worth Economic Development Partnership Executive Council, Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, Dallas Regional Chamber Board of Advisors and is a member of Valliance Bank Board. He actively engages with higher education leadership groups, including Big 12 Conference presidents, Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas (ICUT), Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges (AGB), the Education Advisory Board (EAB) University Presidents Roundtable and the CCI University Presidents Roundtable.

Pullin earned his undergraduate degrees from the University of Oklahoma and MBA from Harvard Business School before returning to OU to earn a Juris Doctor. Pullin and his wife, Ann Bluntzer Pullin, Ph.D., enjoy attending TCU fine arts and athletic events with their children.

MIKE SINQUEFIELD INTERIM DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Mike Sinquefield, named Interim Director of Intercollegiate Athletics in December 2024, arrived at TCU in July 1995 as athletic equipment manager before working his way administratively through a series of promotions to Senior Deputy Athletics Director, Chief Administrative Officer.

Sinquefield has oversight of TCU's football program and serves in a secondary role as a sport administrator for men's basketball. He also oversees TCU Athletics' human resource functions, including contracts, and supports all sport administrators in running the department on a daily basis.

After six years in the equipment room, Sinquefield became TCU's director of football operations in January 2001. After nearly 13 years in football ops, he was promoted to associate athletics director for administration in July 2013 and then deputy athletics director in July 2018.

Prior to arriving at TCU, Sinquefield served three years as director of athletic equipment at East Carolina.

Sinquefield has served on board of directors for the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and the American Football Coaches Association's Director of Football Operations Committee. He is currently on advisory committees for the Rose Bowl Game and College Football Playoff.

A native of LaPlace, La., Sinquefield is a 1992 graduate of LSU. He and his wife, Alisa, have three kids: sons Kaleb and Levi, and daughter Sofie. Kaleb is a first-year student at TCU.

COACHING STAFF

SONNY DYKES
HEAD COACH

Sonny Dykes was introduced as TCU's head football coach on Nov. 30, 2021.

Dykes won 10 National Coach of the Year awards in his first season leading the Horned Frogs. TCU became the first program from the state of Texas to make the College Football Playoff and first from the Big 12 Conference to reach the CFP National Championship after its semifinal win over Michigan.

TCU was just the second school to be in the CFP after starting the season unranked. The Horned Frogs were also the third team since 1998 to play for a national title while beginning the season outside the top 25.

Dykes is only the third head coach in the CFP era to guide his team to the playoffs in his first season. He became the first head football coach in TCU and Big 12 history to start 12-0 in his debut campaign.

TCU was the first Big 12 team to complete the regular season with a 12-0 record since 2009 and the first league member to go 9-0 in conference play since 2016.

Dykes arrived at TCU after serving the previous four seasons as head coach at SMU. He also served as head football coach at Cal (2013-16) and Louisiana Tech (2010-12).

While at Cal, he developed quarterback Jared Goff into the No. 1 overall pick in the 2016 National Football League Draft. In 2011, Dykes was the Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year as Louisiana Tech won the WAC Championship and earned a Poinsettia Bowl appearance against TCU.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Dykes worked as an assistant in the Pac-12, Big 12 and SEC under Mike Stoops (Arizona), Mike Leach (Texas Tech) and Hal Mumme (Kentucky).

Born in Big Spring, Texas, Dykes received his bachelor's degree in history from Texas Tech in 1993 and was a member of the Red Raiders baseball team for two seasons. He is the son of legendary Texas Tech football coach Spike Dykes.

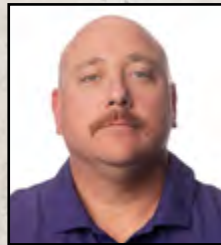

Dykes and his wife, Kate, have two daughters, Ally and Charlie, and a son, Daniel.

SEASON IN REVIEW

#10 QB Josh Hoover

Having won its last three games and five out of six, TCU enters the New Mexico Bowl with momentum.

The momentum also extends off the field. For the first time in program history, TCU signed the Big 12 Conference's top-ranked recruiting class. Its No. 20 overall ranking by ESPN marks the highest in program history during the online recruiting services era.

Quarterback Josh Hoover, one of 11 Horned Frogs to receive All-Big 12 recognition, enters the New Mexico Bowl needing 205 yards passing to break TCU's season record of 3,901 (Trevone Boykin, 2014). Hoover's 3,697 yards rank seventh nationally. His 66.7 completion percentage is third for a season at TCU, while his 23 touchdown passes tie for seventh.

Hoover utilizes an extremely talented wide receiver unit. For the first time in its history, TCU has three players with at least 50 receptions and four players to reach 600 yards in the same season.

#90 Caleb Fox and #54 NaNa Osafo-Mensah

Jack Bech was a Biletnikoff Award Semifinalist and Second-Team All-Big 12 selection. Bech is just the fifth player in TCU history with a 1,000-yard receiving season. His 1,034 yards rank fourth, trailing only Josh Doctson (1,327, 2015), Quentin Johnston (1,069, 2022) and Jalen Reagor (1,061, 2018) who were all first-round NFL draft picks. Bech's nine touchdown receptions tie for fifth in a season at TCU with his 62 receptions placing seventh.

Savion Williams is the first Horned Frog since Kenny Hill in 2017 to have a receiving, rushing and passing touchdown in the same season. He has scored a team-best 12 touchdowns (6 receiving, 6 rushing) while placing second in receptions (60) and rushing yards (322). He has led the Horned Frogs in rushing in four of the last six games.

JP Richardson, who earned All-Big 12 honors as a return specialist, added 52 receptions for 680 yards. He has at least one catch in each of his last 39 games, tying for the sixth-longest active streak in the nation. His 10.9-yard average on punt returns led the Big 12 and placed 10th nationally. His

TCU Defense

89-yard return for a touchdown in a 38-27 win at Kansas tied for fourth-longest in TCU history and is fourth-longest in the FBS this season.

Eric McAlister leads college football with 93.5 percent (29-of-31) of his receptions going for first downs. His 21.8 yards per catch rank fourth in the nation and second in TCU history for a player with at least 20 receptions, trailing only Quentin Johnston (22.1, 2020).

TCU's offensive line is led by James Brockermeyer and Bless Harris who started all 12 games at center and left tackle, respectively. Both received All-Big 12 recognition from the conference's head coaches.

The Horned Frogs' defense is keyed by safety Bud Clark, a two-time Team Captain and Second-Team All-Big 12 selection. He has a team-best three interceptions while his 64 tackles are fourth. Clark ranks ninth on TCU's career list with 11 interceptions, including a Pick-6 for TCU's first points in its 2022 College Football Playoff Semifinal win over Michigan.

Also receiving All-Big 12 honors on defense were safety Abe Camara, edge rushers Devean Deal and NaNa Osafo-Mensah and linebacker Johnny Hodges.

Camara is fifth on TCU with 54 stops while his 6.0 tackles for loss place fourth. He has a team-best two forced fumbles. Deal leads TCU with 8.0 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks, while Osafo-Mensah is second in both categories with 7.0 TFLs and 3.0 sacks. Hodges tops the Horned Frogs with 87 tackles. He was Second-Team All-Big 12 in TCU's 2022 College Football Playoff season.

Punter Ethan Crow was the Co-Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance in the 20-13 win at Cincinnati in the regular-season finale. Playing in cold and snowy conditions, Crow placed four of his five punts inside the 20, including at the 6, 5 and 3-yard lines. The punt downed at the 3 came in the final minute of the contest.

The San Jose State Spartans defeated the New Mexico Lobos, 20-12, which highlighted a season that saw more SJSU wins than any of in the three previous.

Just days prior to the first collegiate bowl game at University Stadium since 1980, Albuquerque was hit with over six inches of snow, forcing the field to be plowed off so the Bowl could go on as scheduled.

The Lobos (9-4) ended a 46-year span without a postseason victory, the sixth longest losing streak in the nation at the time, and gave head coach Rocky Long his first bowl win in five tries. The game ended up in favor of the Lobos as Paul Baker ran for 167 yards in his first start, and Donovan Porterie threw for a career-high 354 yards and two touchdowns.

Offensive MVP

Wyoming trailed by 11 points in the fourth quarter. Its offense was led by a freshman quarterback, its defense was facing the nation's leading rusher. Time to worry? Not these comeback Cowboys. Freshman Austyn Carta-Samuels threw three touchdown passes, the last a 13-yarder to David Leonard in the second overtime Saturday. Wyoming (7-6) stopped the nation's leading rusher, Fresno State's Ryan Mathews, on three rushing attempts from the 1 in the first overtime. The Bulldogs (8-5) tried a quarterback sneak on third down, and Mathews came up short again on fourth down.

Defensive MVP

Jake Heaps, Fr., QB, BYU
Offensive MVP

Jake Heaps threw four touchdown passes, connecting with Cody Hoffman on three scores, and finished with 264 yards passing to help BYU beat UTEP, 52-24. Hoffman had eight catches for 137 yards, while Joshua Quezada ran for 101 yards and J.J. DiLuigi added 98 yards on the ground to help the Cougars in their final contest before they begin play as an independent in football next season. BYU also got two interceptions and one of the team's four sacks from Andrew Rich, voted the most valuable defensive player.

Offensive MVP

Temple's win marked the second straight year the visiting team took home the trophy. The win by the Mid-American Conference (MAC) member also snapped the Mountain West's four-game win streak. The Owls were the first at-large selection to the Gildan New Mexico Bowl to be victorious. Temple's Chris Coyer, the Offensive MVP, was 8-12 with 169 yards passing and 1 TD, plus 12 rushes for 71 yards. The Owls' Tahir Whitehead, the Defensive MVP, recorded 11 tackles (six solo, five assisted), 1.5 tackles for loss for 2 yards.

Arizona's Matt Scott rallied his team in the final 46 seconds, tossing two short touchdown passes for an improbable 49-48 win. The Wildcats recovered an onside kick in the last minute, setting up Scott's 2-yard toss to Tyler Slavin with 19 seconds left for the winning score. Arizona trailed 21-0 in the first quarter and was down 45-28 entering the final period. Scott threw for 382 yards and marched his team back into the game despite those two earlier interceptions. The nation's rushing leader, Ka'Deem Carey, gained 172 yards for the Wildcats. Arizona receiver Austin Hill caught eight passes for 175 yards and two touchdowns. The teams combined for 1,237 total yards. Stephon Jefferson, the nation's second-leading rusher, ran for 180 yards for Nevada.

For the second straight year, the winning team scored at least 10 points in the final minute to win the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. Colorado State trailed by 22 points (35-13) before coming back to beat Washington State 48-45 in the bowl season's opening game. That's tied for the 2nd-largest deficit overcome to win in a non-OT bowl game. The Rams got back in the game when Cougar running back Jeremiah Laufasa fumbled at the Cougars 33, setting up Kapri Bibbs' 1-yard score and Donnell Alexander's two-point conversion that tied it at 45 with 33 seconds left. Then, WSU's Teondray Caldwell fumbled a kickoff return at the 24, setting up Jared Roberts' 41-yard field goal as time expired. The teams combined for 58 points in the 1st half, which is a Gildan New Mexico Bowl record. It is tied for the 9th-most combined points in a half in bowl history (since 1937).

It wasn't a last-second victory like previous years but Utah State still churned out an improbable tale as the Aggies garnered a 21-6 win against UTEP, at times with its fifth-string quarterback leading the offense. The Vigil brothers were the other key component in USU's third straight bowl victory. Zach Vigil was named the Defensive MVP with game-high 11 tackles while younger brother, Nick, notched seven tackles and a touchdown. The Vigils, who combined for 553 career tackles to rank first at the FBS level among active brothers, helped hold UTEP to 149 rushing yards and no touchdowns.

It looked like another wild, comeback victory was going into the Gildan New Mexico Bowl record book. The New Mexico Lobos were working on a potential game-winning drive after trailing by 18 when the Arizona Wildcats thwarted it with an interception to secure the 45-37 win. The Wildcats' Anu Solomon took home the Offensive MVP award, throwing two touchdowns and rushing for another. He and the UofA offense needed just 19:38 minutes of possession to win their second bowl game in Albuquerque. Scoby Wright, III garnered the Defensive MVP honors with a game-high 15 tackles, including 11 solo, and 2 sacks.

New Mexico head coach Bob Davie earned his first career bowl victory when the Lobos beat UTSA. Despite the hype around New Mexico's triple-option threat and the Lobos leading the nation in rushing, the Roadrunners ran for more yards. Jarveon Williams ran for 125 yards for the Roadrunners, who lost in their first bowl appearance in the program's six-year history. UNM quarterback Lamar Jordan was voted as the Most Outstanding Offensive Player, leading the team in rushing (81 yards on 13 carries) and passing (3-4-0 for 77 yards). Linebacker Dakota Cox was named the Defensive MVP, tallying 10 tackles (6 solo), 1.5 tackles for loss (4 yards), and one breakup.

Leading up to the New Mexico Bowl, all talk was on Colorado State's explosive offense. But it was Marshall's offense that put on a show. Tyre Brady separated himself from Rams coverage and sprinted to a 76-yard touchdown reception for the first of three big scoring plays that allowed Thundering Herd hold off the Rams 31-28. He was joined by Keion Davis, who rushed for 141 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown run. Tyler King added a 90-yard rushing touchdown for the Herd. Chase Litton threw for 262 yards and two touchdowns, overshadowing the much-hyped CSU quarterback Nick Stevens, who was sacked five times. The Thundering Herd are 11-2 in bowl games — 5-0 under Doc Holliday.

Utah State walked into the New Mexico Bowl with one of its best records in school history but uncertainty. Its head coach, Matt Wells, left to take the Texas Tech job. Interim coach Frank Maile had to prepare the Aggies with an army of graduate assistants and an announcement a new coach was coming next month.

North Texas, meanwhile, was coming into Albuquerque with experienced coach Seth Littrell and highly touted quarterback Mason Fine.

Jordan Love threw for 359 yards and four touchdowns and Jalen Greene had six catches for 151 yards and a score to help Utah State rout North Texas 52-13.

Maile directed the Aggies (11-2) even after Utah State announced former head coach Gary Andersen would return. However, Andersen opted not to attend the bowl game and let Maile finish what he started.

Love completed 21 of 43 passes with one interception. D.J. Williams had two interceptions, helping Utah State ground high-flying North Texas (9-4).

Aaren Vaughns caught two passes for 109 yards and two scores for the Aggies, Gerold Bright ran for 103 yards and two touchdowns on 16 carries, and Darwin Thompson added 93 yards on 21 carries.

Ryan Agnew passed for 287 yards and three touchdowns and San Diego State won a bowl game for the first time since 2016, beating Central Michigan 48-11.

Jordan Byrd ran for a career-high 139 yards and a touchdown to help the Aztecs (10-3) cap their 10th straight bowl appearance with a victory.

The victory served as a homecoming for Long. He has won the New Mexico Bowl in 2007 as New Mexico's coach. Long is 4-9 in bowl games and used to look at the field from his office. "It was real special to me because I have ties to this place," Long said.

Playing in only their third bowl on the mainland in program history, Hawai'i came to play on defense, forcing three Clayton Turne interceptions, which led to 14 Rainbow Warrior points.

Hawai'i wide receiver Calvin Turne stole the show for both offense and special teams with a 75-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter and a 92-yard kickoff return for a touchdown to extend the Rainbow Warrior lead back to 14 late in the third quarter.

Houston, the first team from the American Athletic Conference to participate in the New Mexico Bowl, held the ball for over 11 minutes in the third quarter in effort to tighten the gap with the Rainbow Warriors but could not rebound from the kickoff return.

Fresno State (10-3) won the bowl game for the first time in three tries. Jake Haener was 26 of 41 for 286 yards and a touchdown. His status had been in doubt when he briefly entered the transfer portal after coach Kalen DeBoer took the job at Washington. The Miners (7-6) pulled to 26-24 early in the fourth quarter on Calvin Brownholtz's 51-yard touchdown pass to Trent Thompson. Fresno State got a field goal, followed by a UTEP safety, before the Bulldogs ran out the clock. UTEP's Gavin Hardison threw for 252 yards and a touchdown. UTEP has lost the New Mexico Bowl in all three of its appearances and has a seven-game bowl losing streak dating to 1967.

Sol-Jay Maiava-Peters, Fr., QB, BYU
Offensive MVP

Fully embracing the last-minute change to the primetime ABC timeslot, BYU and SMU put on a thriller. The Mustangs were able to jump out to a quick lead in the first quarter with a quick field goal and 75-yard drive to retake the lead after Tanner Mordecai found Roderick Daniels in the endzone for an 8-yard score. The Cougars owned the middle part of the game with new QB Sol-Jay Maiava-Peters leading the offense to two scores sandwiched around an 76-yard interception return by Ben Bywater. SMU reused to quit though, scoring twice in the fourth quarter, including the final time with 8 seconds on the clock. Going for two and the win, they would miss the two-point conversion and ultimately fall to BYU 24-23.

Under the guidance of acting head coach Tim Skipper, Fresno State won its fifth-straight bowl game, defeating 10-win New Mexico State, 37-10 on Saturday in the 2023 Isleta New Mexico Bowl at University Stadium. The 27-point win is the Bulldogs' third-largest margin of victory in a bowl game, and the largest since 1985. Red-shirt sophomore Mikey Keene led the charge with a career-high 380 yards passing on 31-of-39 attempts. He accounted for four touchdowns, three through air and one on the ground. Five of Keene's receivers had at least 47 yards, led by Malik Sherrod who had a career-high 81 on eight receptions. The running back had 171 total yards on the day with the other 90 coming on the ground. Bailey led the defense with eight stops and a sack.

Isleta New Mexico Bowl Trophy & MVP Awards

The New Mexico Bowl trophy is one of the most unique in all of college sports. It is a Native American clay pot meticulously handcrafted by artists Marcellus and Elizabeth Media from the Zia Pueblo. The 20-inch bowl-shaped pottery features the iconic Zia sun symbol and images of football players, a deer, mountain lion, buffalo and eagle.

Elizabeth hand-coils and fires the pottery at the couple's home studio and her husband, Marcellus, paints the clay trophies. Using a white base coat on the pot makes the Zia patterns stand out after being hand-painted in black. His final touch is colored acrylic paints depicting football players in classic game stances and logos for the participating teams, not to mention the New Mexico Bowl insignia.

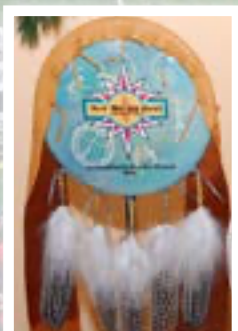

The New Mexico Bowl stuck with the unconventional for its Outstanding Offensive and Defensive Player Awards. They went to another Zia Pueblo artist, Ralph Aragon, who crafted the trophies from traditional leather shields.

Jeff Siembieda, New Mexico Bowl Executive Director, found all three artists in 2006 when he traveled to the pueblo, located approximately 30 miles northwest of Albuquerque, looking for permission to use the Zia sun in its logo. The tribal leaders gave their consent and in return, asked that Zia art be used for the awards.

"Three elements are the central core of harmony that defines each design: our culture, religious belief and spirituality which create the balance of inner peace. We have embraced all the beautiful scenery of New Mexico. Our inspiration for each pot comes from real life images, stories and imagination."

--Marcellus Medina
